DEFENSE SCORES IN PELLETIER CASE

ONE KILLED, TWO INJURED IN FIRST COASTING ACCIDENT OF SEASON

Driver of Double-Runner Lives Only Two Hours After Crashing Into Automobile at Corner of Shaw and Powell Streets

Henry Simard, 35 years old and married, is dead, and Raymond and Wilfred Valland, brothers, aged 5 and 14 years respectively, are suffering from severe injuries as a result of the first serious coasting accident of the season, which took place last night at the corner of Powell and Shaw streets when a double-runner, steered by Simard and carrying the Valland boys, crashed into a Ford runabout driven by Russell A. Williams of Maple street, Chelmsford. Simard lived two hours after being taken to the Lowell Corporation hospital. He had suffered severe internal injuries and nothing could be done to save his life. The two boys were somewhat bruised up, but are not in bad shape, no bones being broken. Their escape from more serious injury or death is considered remarkable. Simard leaves a wife, Florida Charoux, and three children living at 25 Harelay street. The Valland boys live at 10 Frye street.

PRETTY COLD WEATHER

Local Glasses Registered 5 Below Today—Good Skating and Coasting

Lowell shivered, quivered and shook today under the icy breath from the north which has swept down upon New England since last night. The city is bravely endeavoring to carry on in the grip of the second cold blast to hit this section this winter. Yesterday morning the weather bureau predicted colder weather and forecasted the approach of a storm which would take in the whole New England coast as far north as Eastport, Me. Although the storm has not yet arrived, a steady drop in temperature started shortly after noon yesterday and by 10 o'clock last night the mercury was well on its way towards zero and the bottom of the thermometer. Three Story Business Block and Several Adjacent Buildings Destroyed Today

Boston and Milton Send Apparatus to Aid—Several Thrilling Rescues

QUINCY, Dec. 30.—A three-story wooden business building and several adjacent structures on Hancock street, near Quincy square, were destroyed in a general alarm fire early today. The loss was estimated at $200,000, most of it sustained by the Mutual Fire Insurance Corporation, principal occupant of the business block. James J. Jones, a volunteer fireman, and Hoseman Thomas Murphy, were overcome by smoke and removed to a hospital. The ladder truck of the central fire station was practically destroyed by fire when a hot air explosion covered it with burning embers. The fire started in a building occupied by "Norman" as a clothing shop. Continued to Page Four

WITNESS DENIES ALLEN'S CHARGE

Mrs. Lawrence Says Own Attorney Caused Delay in Dropping Suit

Allen Alleged She Was Forced to Drop Suit Under Threat of Prosecution

BOSTON, Dec. 30.—Another of the series of charges brought against District Attorney Joseph C. Pelletier, in connection with the petition of Attorney General J. Weston Allen for his removal from office for alleged misconduct—a charge that he conspired with others to extort $10,000 from Warren C. Daniel in November 1916—was reached today.

Harry C. Bernstein, a New York attorney, testified that he came to Boston in November 1916, at the request of Warren C. Daniel, a dealer in securities, to investigate a report that the district attorney's office was working on charges against Daniel. The witness said that Assistant District Attorney Thomas D. Lavelle referred him to Attorney Daniel H. Cookley.

Cookley, he testified, told him he would endeavor to get District Attorney Pelletier to drop the charges that were supposed to be pending against Daniel on payment of a $10,000 fee. Mr. Cookley said the fee would be returned if he was unsuccessful in stopping the criminal prosecution.

The witness testified that he demonstrated that a $10,000 fee was exorbitant and that he called on District Attorney Pelletier in an effort to learn the nature of the charges supposed to be pending against his client. The district attorney refused to discuss the matter with him, the witness said. Mr. Pelletier took no offense, he added, when Mr. Cookley was quoted as having said in support of his claims of influence with the district attorney that "some folks say I am the district attorney, but I rent this more than Mr. Pelletier does."

Falling to learn anything definite from Mr. Pelletier, and believing there was no real chance pending against Mr. Daniel, the attorney said he returned to New York the same day and heard no more of the matter.

Wants Count Stricken Out
Before the Daniel case was introduced, United States Senator Reed, senior counsel for Mr. Pelletier, sought to have one count, repeated in a number of the allegations against the district attorney, stricken from the charges on the grounds that it was anonymous and did not constitute a legal charge. The count in question alleges that Mr. Pelletier "was guilty of malfeasance, misfeasance and non-feasance, in that he either made groundless threats of criminal prosecution against divers persons or having no hand evidence sufficient for the prosecution of charges against divers persons did from improper motives fail to so prosecute."

Mr. Reed asserted that his client might just as well be charged with "walking north or walking south." The court took the objection under advisement.

Defense Scored Heavily
The defense scored so heavily in the cross-examination of Mrs. Gray W. Lawrence, who was a witness for the prosecution that the state's attorneys sought to cross examine her themselves.

Mrs. Lawrence, who, as Dorothy Cote in 1916, was a figure in a case which the attorney general alleges became the subject of a conspiracy between the district attorney and Atty. Cookley to force her to drop a suit under threat of criminal prosecution, had admitted under cross-examination today that she would have withdrawn her suit weeks before she did but for the attorneys. Her attorney at that time, William S. McAllister, and Mrs. Lawrence, had previously said that withdrawal was in fear of criminal prosecution. The court held that the witness had shown no animus toward the prosecution, and refused to allow her to be cross-examined by Attorney General Allen or his assistants.

WEIRD STORY TOLD BY WOMAN IN THE DISTRICT COURT TODAY

Mrs. Carmela Pierro Said She Attacked Angelo Carnevale With Scissors Because His "Spirit" Haunted Her Husband

Because the "spirit" of Angelo Carnevale haunted her husband in his sleep nights Mrs. Carmela Pierro went to his home in East Chelmsford Monday night and attacked him with a pair of scissors, the woman told Judge Wright when arraigned for assault and battery in district court today.

In view of certain conditions connected with the case and the woman's weak mentality the court said she would not hold her responsible. In the discussion that ensued between police court and Agent Richardson, of the Lowell Humane society, attempting to arrange the disposal of the case, the justices criticized the Chelmsford town authorities for their neglect to provide for certain requests and appeals made to them in behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Pierro. He then instructed the police to get in touch today with the town clerk of Chelmsford and have him appear before him tomorrow for instructions relating to the placing of the man and woman.

Mr. Carnevale, carrying a long scar on his face caused by the scissors wound, related a lengthy story to the court in which he described the troubles of the Pierros during the past two years. Thomas F. Lynch and Charles H. Harris, alleged to have attempted to pick the pockets of a person at the local depot two weeks ago, were given another continuance when arraigned today. The case is now set for trial Jan. 5.

Fred L. Woodward, of Tilton, N. H., was given a suspended sentence of five months to the house of correction and placed on probation 21 hours, within which, the court told him, he must go back to his home town or be committed to the Cambridge institution. It was his 5th appearance in court here of late, the police stated. It was also charged that Woodward when arrested had on his person a bottle labelled "Denatured Alcohol, deadly poison," from which the police say he had been drinking some "strong" fluid. The accused, from the case, told the judge what he was drinking from the poisonous bottle was simply "Jakey." He promised the court he would leave Lowell and return to New Hampshire today.

Joseph C. Pelletier in the Dorothy Cote specifications, one of the many instances of alleged misconduct in office advanced by Attorney General J. Weston Allen as reasons for his removal, was halted for an hour today while opposing counsel argued the question. Continued to Page 7

POSTAL AUTHORITIES LEASE BIG GARAGE

Postmaster Meehan announced this afternoon that the large garage in Perry street near the corner of Anderson street, has been leased by the postal authorities for a reasonable period of time, the terms of the lease being satisfactory to the lessor as well as to Uncle Sam. The lease was effected through the efforts of Postmaster Meehan. The garage is sufficiently large to accommodate 18 trucks, and inasmuch as the local postoffice equipment consists of but 13 trucks, the building will serve the purpose. The postmaster also stated that it is the intention of the postal authorities to do away with the seven small trucks and purchase seven one-ton machines.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Plans Outlined for New Year's Party—Committees Hold Meetings

At a meeting of the Christmas tree committee of Lowell council, K. of C., last evening, plans were outlined for a New Year's party on Sunday evening, Jan. 1, at the council's rooms. A supper at midnight, entertainment and favors will feature the program, the entertainment to be held first, followed by the supper and the distribution of the favors. The committee in charge has fixed the price of tickets at $1.00 and are in the hands of the following: John E. Hart, grand knight; Charles J. Landers, district deputy; J. Eugene Mullin, John F. Golden, Joseph P. O'Leary, Fred Enwright, John H. Quinlan, Henry F. Doran, Patrick J. Ryan, Geo. W. Keefe and the lecturer of the council.

Banquet Committee
The banquet committee of Bishop Delany assembly, fourth degree, K. of C., decided last night that their annual banquet will be held on Feb. 21, the evening before Washington's birthday. A short program of speaking followed by general dancing is planned, and the affair will probably be conducted in high school hall. The dancing will be directed by Dr. R. J. Gonsky. Arrangements for the speakers, dinner hall, decorations and music have been placed in the hands of sub-committees. Faithful Navigator William H. Gallagher presided at last night's meeting.

The Stag Party
The committee in charge of the assembly's stag party also met last night and made the primary arrangements for the affair, which will be conducted in the middle of January.

Going to Boston
A large number of members of Lowell council, K. of C., are going to Boston on Sunday, Feb. 26, to take part in an exemplification of the fourth degree. The date for the annual exemplification has been advanced three months in 1922, as it is generally held in May.

WOOD ALCOHOL VICTIMS

Nine Die in New York—Officers Seek Source of Poisonous Bottled Liquor

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—Police and prohibition officials today redoubled their efforts to locate the source of poisonous bottled liquor, which has taken three more lives, bringing up the total for the last six days to nine dead and many others blinded or made seriously ill.

Yesterday's victims included George C. Henry, a middle-aged salesman of Brookline, Mass. Several others who drank wood alcohol when they thought they were drinking gin, are at the point of death at the same institution.

RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT THE M. T. I.

Arthur M. Flaherty, president of the Matthew Temperance Institute for four terms, was re-elected at the semi-annual election held last night in the organization's quarters. As a tribute to Mr. Flaherty's popularity with the members his candidacy was unopposed. A good board of government, composed chiefly of younger members, was elected to assist him for the first six months of 1922.

John J. Conlon was elected vice-president; Walter M. Quinn, financial secretary; James M. McGovern, treasurer.

ARTHUR M. FLAHERTY

Officers: John E. Callahan, recording secretary; P. Frank Kelly, marshal; and Rev. D. J. Keefe, P. D., spiritual director without opposition. For the board of trustees, board of executives, and literary committee there were interesting contests, and several ballots were taken before the elections were determined. Frank Flaherty, William Sheehy and Edward Kelly were elected trustees; John Hurley, Joseph O'Loughlin and William Kelly, examiners; and Herbert Nason, John Triche and Joseph Tracy, members of the literary committee.

It was announced that a New Year's party would be held Sunday evening, with an entertainment beginning at 9 o'clock and continuing until midnight, when refreshments will be served and favors distributed. After midnight, dancing will be in order and will continue as long as space permits to enjoy it.

The installation of officers will take place at Sunday's regular meeting.

GETTING READY FOR THE BIG AUTO SHOW

Lowell automobile merchants and salesmen, together with representatives of the affiliated trades, are preparing for the 1922 auto show, which is to be held in the Casino. Members of the Automobile Merchants' association of Lowell and vicinity said today that plans now being made for the annual event, promise to make the 1922 show one of the best ever given in this city or anywhere in the vicinity.

George H. Dana, prominent in the automobile trade in Lowell, is president of the association, which is to hold an important business meeting tonight at the Lowell chamber of commerce to arrange for the big show. A tentative date for the exhibition, Jan. 23 to Jan. 25, was fixed sometime ago.

It is said that 25 makes of automobiles will be exhibited at the Casino show. Some of the best lines of automobiles of every description are to be shown, also, and supporters of the coming exhibition say it will prove one of the finest things ever arranged for those who own cars or who expect to buy cars in 1922.

The Lowell auto men are assured of splendid support from car manufacturers in their extensive plans to exhibit to the people of Lowell all that is new and up to date in the automotive industry.

MAYOR EXPRESSES HIS APPRECIATION

In appreciation of the concert given at the Chelmsford street hospital yesterday by Al Moore's Jazz band, Mayor Thompson has sent letters of thanks to Mr. Moore, leader of the band, and Ben Pickett, manager of Keith's theatre, where the band is performing this week, expressing his own personal thanks and those of Mr. and Mrs. Conley as well. The concert was received with extreme enthusiasm by the inmates, and Commissioner Donnelly was also compelled to sing, rendering several of his Harry Lauder imitations and his favorite Irish song, "The Old Maid Shawl." The communications follow:

December 30, 1921.
Mr. Al Moore,
Care of B. P. Keith's Theatre,
Lowell, Mass.

My Dear Mr. Moore:
May I express to you and through you to your fellow musicians my sincere appreciation of the concert given at the city hospital yesterday afternoon. Not only was it greatly appreciated by me as the head of this department, but also by Mr. and Mrs. Conley, who are directly in charge. I trust that at some future time, I may be able to reciprocate in some manner for your kindness.

Very truly yours,
PERRY D. THOMPSON,
Mayor of Lowell.

December 30, 1921.
Benjamin E. Pickett, Manager,
B. P. Keith's Theatre,
Lowell, Mass.

My Dear Mr. Pickett:
Allow me to express my own personal appreciation and that of Mr. and Mrs. Conley, of the most enjoyable concert given at the Chelmsford street hospital on Thursday afternoon by the boys of Al Moore's band playing at your theatre. The concert was appreciated very much by the inmates of the hospital, as was your courtesy and willingness to co-operate.

Respectfully yours,
PERRY D. THOMPSON,
Mayor of Lowell.

32 BRIDGE STREET

1 Killed; 2 Injured

Continued

Near the corner of Powell and Shaw streets, he heard children shouting from the top of the hill, and made an effort to steer his machine to the right side of the street. He was unable to move far enough owing to the crowd of boys on the sidewalk, and brought his machine almost to a stop in front of the oncoming double-runner containing Simard and the 2 boys. The big sled, rushing down the hill at a high rate of speed, crashed headlong into the automobile, smashing the radiator and throwing the riders against the front of the machine. Mr. Simard received the brunt of the smash, and was unconscious when picked up. The boys were thrown out to one side of the automobile and badly shaken up by their toss into the roadway. An ambulance was summoned and Mr. Simard and one of the boys were taken to the hospital, after Dr. Marshall L. Alling had been summoned to administer first aid. Later, the other boy was also removed to the hospital.

The body of Mr. Simard was removed today to the home on Barclay street by Undertaker Joseph Albert.

Deceased is survived by his wife, Mrs. Florida (Charroux) Simard; three children, Raymond, Dorothy and Esther; his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Simard; five brothers, Francis, Emory, Azario and Alfred of this city and Simola of Cheimsford; three sisters, Mrs. Frank Deschamps, Mrs. Charles Morin and Mrs. Lucille Valerand. He was a member of the Sacred Heart league of Notre Dame de Lourdes church.

Williams Not Held

Mr. Williams this morning appeared at police headquarters and notified the authorities that he was ready to surrender himself should they want to prefer a charge against him. After the matter had been carefully gone over by police officials and Judge Enright it was stated no complaint would be made against him at this time. An inquest into the death of Simard, however, will be held in the near future by one of the judges and should then any evidence be submitted that would tend to prove negligence on Mr. Williams' part a charge of manslaughter will be brought. It was stated.

$200,000 Loss in Quincy

and by the Star Supply Co., a two-story wooden structure south of the furniture store. It was apparently due to an overheated furnace, although the cause was not definitely determined.

The fire spread rapidly, destroying both buildings and a one-story warehouse to the north. Fanned by a high wind the flames crossed the street, burning a two-family house and two single dwellings.

The roof of the G.A.R. hall, also on Hancock street, was burned and the front of the building was scorched. The Moose Home caught fire, but the blaze there was put out without spread.

Several Thrilling Rescues

Several difficult rescues were made by firemen in the extreme cold.

John Marchetti, his wife and three children were taken down on ladders from their apartment. The artificial stone front of the business block collapsed during the fire, carrying down electric light, telephone and trolley wires, and a larger transformer to the street. The resulting short circuit sent high voltage current into several dwelling houses. A fire was started from this cause in the home of Dr. John Ash, a quarter of a mile away, but it was put out without much damage.

Boston Sends Help

Fire apparatus was sent from Boston and Milton to aid the local firemen. Hundreds of feet of hose was burned out in the hot-air explosion and several lines froze and had to be chopped to allow new connection. The high wind scattered sparks over a large area causing many minor roof fires.

$60,000 LOSS BY FIRE
Five Wooden Buildings in Business Center at Gray, Me., Destroyed Today

GRAY, Me., Dec. 30.—Five small wooden buildings on the West Side of Main Street in the square at Gray Corner were burned today with a loss estimated at $60,000.

They contained the hardware store of G. M. Stevens in which it started from an unknown cause, the general store of the Cole-Marsden Co., a hall used by the Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias, the confectionery and periodical store and residence of Andrew Antonio, William H. Dunphy's barber shop and harness shop, and the blacksmith shop of Charles Thayer.

All the buildings except the Cole-Marsden Co. store were owned by Mrs. Luther Hill, whose loss was placed at $18,000. This concern's loss was given as $20,000 on its building which also contained the lodge rooms, and $10,000 on stock. The loss on the stock in the Stevens store, whose owner, one of the oldest merchants, value of Antonio's stock was $5,000. The value of Antonio's stock was $5,000. The loss on lodge property was estimated at $1,000.

During the excitement that prevailed while the fire was in progress, a chimney fire received insufficient attention and later worked into a "blind attic" causing damage of $1,000 to the residence of James B. Hill, a quarter of a mile from Gray Corner.

MYSTERIOUS EXPLOSION
Lives of 21 Persons Endangered in Fire Following Explosion in Rochester

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Dec. 30.—Lives of 21 persons were endangered early today in a tenement fire, following a mysterious explosion which partially destroyed a three story frame building in the central section of the city. Police are investigating for a possible blackhand plot.

$40,000 LOSS CAUSED BY FIRE AT BIDDEFORD, ME.

BIDDEFORD, Me., Dec. 29.—The Adams block, a three story structure on Alfred street, was the scene of a fire this morning which caused a loss estimated at from $25,000 to $40,000. The efforts of the firemen to check the blaze which was discovered shortly after 3 o'clock were hampered by a zero temperature and high wind. The principal loss was due to smoke and water. A drug, shoe and clothing store being wet down, together with a restaurant and bowling alley. The top floor, occupied by a boxing training club, escaped heavy damage. The cause of the blaze is unknown.

FIRE BREAKS OUT IN NEW BRITAIN CHURCH

NEW BRITAIN, Conn., Dec. 30.—As worshippers took their places for early mass today, fire was seen in the rear of the church of St. John the Evangelist (Roman Catholic). Rev. Father Ladin directed those present to leave and sent altar boys for fire apparatus. He removed the altar vessels and left. The altar escaped the fire which burned the rear wall and roof of the edifice. The loss is $15,000.

Ex-President Woodrow Wilson at 65

These pictures of Woodrow Wilson were taken upon the sixty-fifth anniversary of his birth, December 28. He posed for them in front of his home, 2340 S street, Washington. This is the first time he has appeared for his photograph, unattended, since he left the White House. He appears in better health than at any time since his breakdown.

ANOTHER HEARING IN THEATRE CASE

The license commission yesterday afternoon held another hearing on the application for a renewal of the license to operate the Merrimack Square theatre. Manager Nelson applied for the permit several weeks ago, but when objections to granting the same were filed with the commission by the management of the New Jewel theatre the board decided to lay the matter on the table and grant public hearings to the objectors. The first hearing was held a week ago this afternoon, both sides being represented by counsel and lively clashes featuring the arguments. At the regular meeting of the commissioners Tuesday evening the members failed to reach a decision, it being announced that there were still phases of the opposition not clear to them. Hence they decided to call both sides before them for a hearing again, this being done yesterday afternoon. The whole matter was once again gone over and testimony of additional witnesses was heard. The license of the Merrimack Square theatre expires tomorrow and unless the commission makes known its findings either today or tomorrow this popular amusement house will be obliged to close its doors until the license board decides one way or the other. It was stated at the office of the commission today.

Manager Harpo of the New Jewel theatre, the complainant in the case, through his attorney, contends that the same persons who are now controlling the Merrimack Square theatre failed to live up to certain contract obligations when, he alleges, they were operating the Jewel theatre some time ago.

BATTERY B LOSES SHOOTING MATCH

Battery C, of Lawrence, defeated Battery B, of this city, in a revolver shooting match at the local armory last night. The bowling team of the local outfit, however, would not be outdone and badly vanquished the rollers from their sister battery. The shooting match was well contested and according to witnesses some excellent scores were turned in. The contests were preceded by a fine supper served in the mess hall during which Lieut. Col. Brown, of Boston, attached to the ordnance department of the army, the guest of the evening, addressed the national guardsmen.

FOR INDUSTRIAL DEMOCRACY NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—Student delegates from many eastern colleges and universities were in New York today to attend the sessions of the league for industrial democracy.

SKIDDED TO SIDEWALK
A runabout automobile owned by Adam Gullinette, of 323 Middle street, skidded onto the sidewalk in Merrimack street near the Green school this morning and came very near tipping over. When the machine skidded one of the rear wheels struck the curbing and was snapped off. No one was injured.

HONORABLE DISCHARGE

THE OUTLOOK FOR 1922

Retail Trade in Dry Goods

Confident of Better Times

in New England

The prospect in retail trade for 1922, as defined by representative members of the National Retail Dry Goods Association doing business in the larger cities of the United States and in many of the smaller centers, is for a twelve-month somewhat better, on the whole, than 1921. Recovery promises to be gradual with very large sales volume expected from the early fall until the close of the year.

This auspicious outlook is not held, however, throughout the south where the uncertain future of cotton creates extreme conservatism, while the southwest hopes for a prosperous year only through large crops or higher crop prices.

Practically all agree in anticipating more stable business conditions, with prices little changed. Retail merchants have taken, during 1921, the smallest net profits on which they can do business. Any decline in prices must originate with manufacturers, whose reductions the retailer can pass on to the consumer. The opinion is that the other factor capable of bringing about reduction of commodity prices is lowered freight rates.

Sectional report on business conditions: New England: New England anticipates general improvement as unemployment in local industries decreases. Merchants will welcome lower prices but as a rule are expecting a softening of prices with a slight drop in certain lines, with prices maintained on standard, advertised brands of merchandise.

Middle Atlantic States: Retailers generally look forward to a gradual improvement for next year, with a decided turn in business late next summer and very great activity for fall with the end of the retrenchment period. They look for a gradual decline unless the downward trend is checked by the manufacturers.

Southern States: The south is divided as to the retail outlook. Richmond and New Orleans are optimistic, counting on a favorable spring, with larger sales in the fall, as do also Louisville, Atlanta and Birmingham. The south on the whole expects a decline in prices.

Mrs. Edward Hueston Found That Wincarnis Was the Only Thing That Seemed to Do Her Good

Mrs. Edward Hueston, 5145 N. Cleveland Avenue, Philadelphia, tells an interesting story of what Wincarnis did in helping restore her to health.

For a long time Mrs. Hueston had been in poor health, being much run-down and suffering from nervousness. After trying many tonics, without result, she one day, while reading her daily paper, saw one of the advertisements of Wincarnis and decided to try a small bottle.

In Mrs. Hueston's own words, "I took a small bottle and it seemed to do me good, so I bought a large one and within a week I began to feel much better. I started to sleep and eat much better, and my nerves quieted down. After taking three bottles, I felt better than I had for years. Wincarnis is certainly a wonderful tonic."

Mrs. Hueston's is only one of many similar cases honored by the use of Wincarnis. This is proved by the thousands of letters received from persons, grateful for the health and strength Wincarnis gave them when they were weak and worn-out, who have vouched for its remarkable virtues as a tonic, reconstructive and bloodmaker.

Wincarnis is one of the oldest general tonics in existence, and has been recommended by over 10,000 physicians. All over the world Wincarnis is bringing renewed vigor, vitality, and endurance to weak, anemic, nervous and run-down men and women.

Buy a bottle of Wincarnis today. In two sizes, $1.35 and $1.10 at all first class druggists.

PLAN RAPID TRANSIT FOR DORCHESTER

BOSTON, Dec. 30.—Plans for a rapid transit system for the Dorchester district are outlined in a report to the legislature filed yesterday by the Public Utilities commission and the Boston Transit commission, acting jointly. These two bodies were directed by the general court to make a study of the subject.

The undertaking would, it is estimated, cost approximately $5,555,000, the greater part of which would have to be provided either by the state, the city of Boston or communities especially benefited.

The plan, in brief, provides for taking over the Shawmut branch of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad running the present Dorchester tunnel trains along the Shawmut branch roadbed to Fields Corner and using high-speed trolleys on the Shawmut branch tracks beyond the Mattapan square. Under the plan passengers would transfer from the tunnel trains to the surface cars at Fields Corner station of the Shawmut branch. The station would be rebuilt and extensively enlarged.

Provision would also be made on the western side of the rapid transit tracks between Dorchester Avenue and Columbia road for a freight siding to serve the needs of present and future industrial plants.

SIX COASTERS HURT, ONE FATALLY AT HAVERHILL

HAVERHILL, Dec. 30.—Six persons were injured, one of them, a girl, probably fatally, last night when a double-runner, racing at terrific speed down Mill street hill, sideswiped an automobile. The force of the impact hurled some occupants of the sled many feet through the air and others under the automobile. They landed in huddled heaps, cut and bleeding, stunned and with bones fractured.

The most seriously injured is Miss Pauline Larsen, aged 18, of 74 Summer street. She is at the Gen. F. H. Gale hospital with internal injuries. Her recovery is despaired of.

Frank Boyd, 18, of 15 Came ave., and Angelina Crisp, 16, of 52 Moore street, are at the Hale hospital. The former is suffering from a severe gash on the forehead, and possibly other injuries and the latter from two compound fractures of the left leg, one at the hip and the other at the ankle. The condition of both is serious.

Arthur Sears, 19, of 18 Chestnut street, Valina Downing, 15, of 50 Moore street, and Theresa Crisp, 11, sister of Angelina, were taken to their homes in a taxi after the crash from cuts and bruises.

The collision occurred at about 9 o'clock while hundreds of young folks were coasting, and caused great excitement. The sport was, as a result, abandoned for the night.

COPPER MINES REOPEN ON JANUARY 16

BUTTE, Mont., Dec. 30.—Mines and reduction plants in the Butte, Great Falls and Anaconda districts will resume Jan. 16, it was announced yesterday by all the local mining companies. Starting Jan. 16, a horizontal wage decrease of 50 cents a shift will go into effect.

Companies making the announcement included the Anaconda Copper Mining company, Butte and Superior Mining company, Taelumne Copper company, Davis-Daly Copper company, North Butte Mining company and others.

It also was stated that the Anaconda company had arranged to buy enough zinc concentrates to produce 5,000,000 or 7,000,000 pounds of zinc a month at its Great Falls plant.

ST. CATHERINE'S DAY POPULAR IN FRANCE

PARIS, Dec. 30.—St. Catherine's day is the day when all young French girls who have attained the age of 25 without finding a husband put on the bonnet of spinsterhood, although this does not necessarily mean that they forthwith abandon all hope of finding a suitable mate.

The girls who work in the Paris dressmaking establishments made high holiday on that day, and those among them who had become "St. Catherine's" wore lace bonnets made by their comrades.

In groups they walked along the boulevards, generally five or six abreast, arms linked, with the bonnet wearers in the front rank and all their escort of friends following. The working girls vied with each other in the fancy costumes they wore. Wedding groups are popular, with the "bride" beautifully dressed in silks, accompanied by a "bridegroom" in comic costume.

The Three Musketeers, with cloak and sword, slouched hat and white feather, were to be seen walking proudly along the boulevards followed by their admiring friends, but the Musketeers' voices proclaimed them girls.

PATROLMAN DREWETT IS COMMENDED BY COURT

Patrolman Arthur W. Drewett, on the early night Lakeview avenue beat, was warmly commended by Judge Thomas J. Enright in the juvenile session of the district court today for his work in tracing down and arresting two boys who are believed responsible for a series of thefts of sweaters, neckties and other wearing apparel from the counters of numerous local department stores. The youths, Mitchell Mazur, 14 years old, charged with delinquency, and William Brown, 17 years old, charged with larceny, were arraigned in court today. Mazur was committed to the Lyman school, while the case against Brown was continued to next Friday for disposition.

Several weeks before Christmas, reports were made to the police by local store managers that larcenies were being committed at counters where boys wearing articles were on display. The patrolmen on various beats were notified and an investigation of the alleged thefts was instituted. Patrolman Drewett obtained considerable information regarding the supposed thieves and on his own initiative set out to apprehend the guilty parties. After working on the case night and day for about weeks he finally succeeded in locating and arresting the youths. The police say that Mazur and Mitchell are implicated in a number of petty larcenies and are also searching for several other boys whom they suspect of also being shop-lifters and probable co-workers of the duo.

MATRIMONIAL

A pretty wedding took place yesterday morning at St. Columba's church when Mr. Harold Wilkins and Miss Yvonne Lamarre, two popular young people of this city, were united in the bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed at a nuptial mass celebrated at 8:15 by Rev. Fr. Hogan. The bride was gown in brown, carried a bouquet of pink tea roses, and was given away by her father, Mr. Emory Lamarre, while the groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Willis Wilkins. At the close of the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served at the home of the bride's parents, 31 Mr. Grove street and later the happy couple, who were the recipients of numerous wedding gifts left on a brief honeymoon trip to Philadelphia and New York. Upon their return, they will be tendered a reception at the home of the bride's parents. They will make their home at 3 Dracut street.

Reddy-O'Grady

Mr. Patrick Reddy, of Boston and Miss Mary O'Grady of this city were married Wednesday at St. Patrick's church, Nashua, N. H., by Rev. Matthew Cronin, assisted by Rev. John E. Cahalane. Miss Margaret Mitchell of Boston was bridesmaid, while the best man was Mr. Thomas Mason of Nashua. At the close of the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mrs. Oakley Bryan in Midland street, this city.

APPROACH OF ICE

HARVESTING SEASON

If the cold weather keeps up it is probable that in the early part of next week the Daniel Gage company will give employment to between 100 and 200 men harvesting ice on the ponds in the neighboring towns. The Gage Co. harvests ice from Forge pond at Forge Village, Spectacle Lake at North Littleton and Baptist pond at South Chelmsford. The ice on these ponds is about 3 inches thick at present and it is believed that three or four more days of good cold weather will bring it to a thickness of about 11 or 12 inches. Mrs. Gage announced this morning that unless there is a change in the weather, ice cutting will be started in the early part of next week. The ice on the Merrimack river is reported as being about three inches thick.

Argument Halts Pelletier Trial

or the admissibility of depositions. The prosecution had requested permission to take the deposition of Mrs. Agnes L. Ruhl of St. Louis in connection with the allegation that Mr. Pelletier used the district attorney's office to frighten Albert T. Smith in October, 1918 into paying $37,500 all-money to Mrs. Ruhl who at that time was his wife. Counsel for Mr. Pelletier took the position that the present proceedings were quasi-criminal, and that all witnesses must be brought into court to face the accused.

Taken Matter Under Adversement

The attorney general told the court that he was without authority to compel Mrs. Ruhl to come to Boston to testify and that her testimony was essential. The court took the matter under advisement.

Chief Justice Rugg announced that the supreme court docket originally set for January 3 would be suspended until this trial, which is being held before the full bench, is concluded. He announced also that court would adjourn at 4:30 this afternoon until Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Lawrence Cross-Examined

Mrs. Guy W. Lawrence of Gardiner, Me., who was formerly Miss Dorothy Cote, resumed the stand for cross-examination, when the argument over depositions was ended. Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, counsel for Mr. Pelletier, questioned her again regarding various phases of the case which the attorney general contends, constituted improper use of his office by Mr. Pelletier, and conspiracy with Daniel H. Coakley, an attorney to make her drop a suit against Lawrence. The couple were at odds with each other in 1918.

Attorneys Kept Couple Apart

The witness said she met Mr. Lawrence some three weeks before she definitely abandoned her suit for possession of the automobile. He told her that he was about broke, she said, and she offered to give him her jewels and to sell the car and give him half of the proceeds to help him out. "Nothing but our attorneys was keeping us apart at that time," she added. The name of William R. Pataungall, former attorney general of the state of Maine, was brought into the case by Robert O. Dodge, a state's attorney, when he asked the witness if she had consulted him relative to the testimony she expected to give during this trial. Counsel for Mr. Pelletier objected to the question and the court excluded it. Mr. Dodge explained that he desired to show that Mr. Pataungall, who now represents Mrs. Lawrence, is known to be friendly with Daniel H. Coakley.

At Yesterday's Session Mrs. Lawrence was the center of all eyes yesterday. She entered the court Continued to Page Eleven coldest points in the city agree on the fact that five below at 6 a. m. today was about the lowest point reached by the mercury.

In Boston it was recorded that the temperature dropped about 35 degrees in 15 hours, and while it did not reach zero, the city felt the icy blast all day. The temperature here must have dropped even more than that because it went below the zero mark.

The Locks & Canals have an automatic thermometer which showed a point five degrees below zero was the lowest reached during the night. At Charley Breen's store, at the corner of Westford and Stevens streets, the thermometer showed it to be five below at 7 o'clock while at 8 the mercury had climbed to the zero point. J. B. V. Coburn of Pawtucketville reports it was three below at his store in Riverside street at 6:45 while it was two below at his home in Mammoth road at 4 o'clock. Starting Michael Murphy of the street railway says it was five below at the city line early this morning, while it was one below in Merrimack square at 6 o'clock. At the boulevard pumping station it was five below at 7 o'clock. At 8 o'clock the mercury registered just zero in front of Cordesau's drug store in Centralville.

Outdoor Sports Popular

With the cold weather, enthusiasts of outdoor winter sports come into their own. The skating, coasting, skiing and tobogganing in various parts of the city are reported as excellent.

The favorite skating places of the city are Shedd park, Washington park and the South common. Supt. of the park department John W. Kernan says the skating at Shedd and Washington parks is fine while the South common has been flooded and will be ready by tomorrow morning. Coasting in different parts of the city is also reported good. Wherever there is a hill, groups of people, both young and old, may be seen merrily skipping over the hardened crust. The most popular places for coasting seem to be Fort Hill, Oak street, Porter street, Fairmount to Rogers street and Rogers street. Nearly any section of Centralville is popular with the coasters and reports indicate the "sliding" is excellent in all sections.

The city has not yet designated certain streets of the city that can be used by the coasters. In nearly every city the officials set aside streets upon which coasting may be enjoyed. Last year this was not done because of the fact that there was little real coasting weather. Now that the winter seems to have set in certain streets may be marked off for sliding. The park officials have set aside Fort Hill and have stationed men there as well as at Shedd and Washington parks. Tobogganing and skiing seem to be more popular this year than in years before, but this may be due to account of the excellent conditions for both sports. There is good tobogganing reported at Shedd park, Vesper Country club and Mt. Pleasant Golf club. Skiing is good in about any spot that affords an incline. Fields and country roads are patronized by devotees of skis for the reason that the latter are a bit too unmanageable to permit free use in thickly populated places. Once a person gets going on these wooden skates, either a fall or a natural protection is necessary to halt the flight of an amateur.

Supt. Kernan Comments

In commenting on conditions in the city Supt. Kernan said this morning: "The skating, coasting, skiing and tobogganing are fine at Shedd and Washington parks. We will have the South common ready for skating tomorrow and expect the skating to be as good there as it is in the other sections of the city looked after by the park department. We have designated Fort Hill avenue as a place to coast and have assigned men there to look after the coasters. There are two sides which are being well patronized. If the people will stick to places that are guarded by men there is little danger of accidents."

"The hockey rink at Shedd park is in fine condition. All who wish to play hockey have the chance to perform in this section of the park. We will allow no hockey playing outside the rink on this surface. We want no repetition of the accident last year when a little boy had his eye injured by a flying puck."

"The skating and tobogganing are all so good at the parks, especially Shedd park and there are a great many people taking advantage of the chance for outdoor amusement."

Continued cold weather will keep the various places in good condition and unless there is a storm of some magnitude the sport should be popular for some weeks. A break in the cold weather is not predicted for a few days at least.

N. Y. BANK INNOVATION

"Compound Interest Department" to Attack "Spenders" Inaugurated

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Men included in the category of "spenders" have been made the special subject of solicitude by the National City bank. This institution has inaugurated an innovation in banking circles in the form of a "compound interest department" where accounts may be opened on deposit of $1 or more, bearing interest at 3½ per cent, compounded semi-annually. Except in name, it is a savings department.

"There are a great many people with incomes ranging from $2000 or $3000 a year upward who never save anything," said an official of the bank. "They are people of medium income who have not learned how to be thrifty."

The compound interest department opened three days ago, and 600 accounts already have been opened.

LONDON WRITERS PLAY FRENCH ATTITUDE

LONDON, Dec. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Efforts at the Washington conference to outlaw the use of the submarine as a weapon and France's claim for a large undersea fleet, continuing to be absorbing topics in England. Today's newspapers devote several columns to reports of the conference proceedings and criticisms from the American press and published lengthy editorials on the developments.

The majority of the editorial writers assail the French attitude.

INDICT WOMEN OWNERS OF MASSAGE PARLORS

CHICAGO, Dec. 30.—Grand Jury indictments of three women owners of massage parlors based on evidence of what State's Attorney Robert H. Crowe terms "gross and increasing secret immorality," were announced today as the beginning of a determined campaign to rid Chicago of scores of such establishments.

"There are hundreds of these places in the city," said State's Attorney Crowe, "some of them, of course, are legitimate and respectable, principally those catering exclusively to women. But I can see nothing respectable about a place where girls bathe and massage men."

EUROPEAN STAFF OF U. S. SHIPPING BOARD

LONDON, Dec. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—The European staff of the United States shipping board will be composed almost entirely of Americans at the beginning of the new year, as a result of the Americanization policy inaugurated by Chairman Albert D. Lasker when he took over the direction of the board last June.

The policy of retrenchment, which has been pursued as a companion policy of replacing aliens by Americans, has effected a 70 per cent. reduction in the number of employees in the European field.

Officials expressed satisfaction with contracts which have been established with shipping officials and European governments and with the friendly co-operation accorded by port officials.

Nationalists Leave Cairo for Ceylon

CAIRO, Egypt, Dec. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Said Zagloul Pasha, nationalist leader and his five followers who were arrested at Cairo last Friday, sailed from Suez for Ceylon last night.

There has been considerable speculation as to the ultimate destination of Zagloul since receipt of the first despatches telling of his removal to Suez by the British authorities. The six nationalists were ejected from Cairo after refusing to discontinue political activity and their removal was followed by rioting in Cairo and other cities in which a number of lives were lost.

France Regarded With Suspicion

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Albert Sauraut, head of the French arms conference delegation at the meeting today of the conference naval committee, declared in substance that France was beginning to be regarded with suspicion by the other powers represented in the Washington meeting and that this could not go on.

TO ARREST CREW OF ALCOHOL SCHOONER

BOSTON, Dec. 30.—Federal warrants were issued today for the arrest of the captain and crew of the British schooner Golden West which was seized in Massachusetts Bay yesterday as a suspected rumrunner by the coast guard cutter Aushnet. The warrants charge the men with "unlawful and landing and assisting in unloading and landing from the schooner Golden West in Massachusetts Bay 2500 gallons of alcohol from St. Pierre, Martinique."

Captain Francis Amers and one member of his crew were believed to be still on board the schooner at a dock here today. The other five men were said to have left the vessel but their whereabouts were understood to be known to the federal officials.

ARMOUR'S DAUGHTER PRAISES DR. LORENZ

CHICAGO, Dec. 30.—Publication of an article in the Journal of the American Medical Association that the cure of Leticia Armour, daughter of J. Ogden Armour of Chicago by Dr. Adell Lorenz of Vienna, "was not a cure" today brought a statement from the former Miss Armour, who is now Mrs. John J. Mitchell, Jr. In 1921 and 1924 operations were performed on Mrs. Mitchell by Dr. John Ballou of Chicago and Dr. Lorenz.

"I cannot say that a perfect cure has been effected in either hip, but the hip treated by Dr. Lorenz is far better than the other one, with which he could do little because it had been too badly misshapen," she said, "myself believe that had it not been for the work done before he was called in my case he could have effected a complete cure."

Reach Agreement on American Proposal

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—The American proposal for the limitation of auxiliary naval craft to a maximum of 10,000 tons displacement was understood to have been virtually agreed upon at the morning session today of the arms conference naval committee. All of the powers delegations accepted the American proposal except the French, who, while holding formal approval in abeyance, said such approval was expected. The delegations of all the powers, however, were understood to have given their assent to the additional provision of the American proposal that the guns of auxiliary craft be limited to eight inches.

CITY COUNCIL MEETS AND PAYS MORE BILLS

The municipal council held another of its daily meetings this morning, and was featured principally by the payment of bills for the heating system at the Morey school, amounting to $6160.40, for the new triple combination to be installed at the Stevens street firehouse $10,000, and the appropriation of $3000 to pay for street lighting for the remainder of the current year, including bills unpaid to date.

The meeting was called to order at 11.40 by Mayor Thompson, with all members present, except Commissioner Marchand.

Three requisitions were presented, one for the health yard, one for the Chelmsford street hospital, and a third for outdoor relief. The purchasing agent was ordered to fill the requisition.

The report of Animal Inspector Dr. Sherman was read and accepted. The doctor stated that an increase in cases of rabies during the coming year is probable. This part of the report was ordered sent to the superintendent of police by the city clerk.

It was voted to instruct the auditor to issue a warrant for the payment of the sum of $10,000 for Commissioner Salmon's new fire engine.

A claim from Annie R. Young for trespasses and damage by the water department was referred to the city solicitor.

An appropriation of $3000 for street lighting, with the emergency order attached, was voted by the council. This will pay for lighting up to January 1.

An award of $70 to Rosa Dowd for damage by the waterworks department by shutting off water without notice—her ceilings, walls and boiler being injured when the water was restored—was voted, and will be paid when Miss Dowd executes a release satisfactory to the city solicitor.

A recess of five minutes was taken at 11.45. Commissioner Marchand entered during the recess.

The meeting reconvened at 11.50, the recess having been extended at the request of Mr. Marchand.

A bill for $3240.51 from the Lowell Gas Light Co. was approved.

Bills for the heating contracts at the Morey school were presented by Commissioner Marchand, amounting to $6,450.10. The items were: Chisholm Co., plumbers—$3183.50, heating; $64.85, repairs; $2993.40, heating on second contract, connecting addition to new heating system; $125, same; George Huey, drawing of plans and specifications and supervision, $322.23 and $155.91.

The auditor was authorized to issue a warrant for the payment of these bills.

The commissioner was given permission to enter into a contract with Mr. McPhail.

The meeting adjourned at 12.05 until 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

MOTHER!

Move Child's Bowels with "California Fig Syrup"

Even a sick child loves the "fruit" taste of "California Fig Syrup." If the little tongue is coated, or if your child is listless, cross, feverish, full of cold, or has colic, a teaspoonful will never fail to open the bowels. In a few hours you can soothe for yourself how thoroughly it works all the constipation, sour bile and waste from the tender, little bowels and gives you a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup—Adv.

ment by shutting off water without notice—her ceilings, walls and boiler being injured when the water was restored—was voted, and will be paid when Miss Dowd executes a release satisfactory to the city solicitor.

Root Later Said Talk Dealt Chiefly With Situation of New England Railroads

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—Elihu Root of the American armament delegation, was an early visitor at the White House today and was closeted with President Harding for nearly two hours. The regular cabinet meeting was delayed by the extended conference. Mr. Root asserted his talk dealt chiefly with the present situation of "New England railroads."

SAY PLANET VENUS SUPPORTS NO LIFE

SWARTHMORE, Pa., Dec. 30.—Investigations by E. St. John, director of the Wilson Observatory, California, and Seth D. Both declared that they had discovered no oxygen or water on Venus and therefore the presence of animal life was precluded.

BIG STILL SEIZED BY LIQUOR SQUAD

The police liquor squad under the direction of Sgt. Michael H. Winn and Federal Enforcement Agent Harry G. Sheldon late last night seized a 100 gallon still in the cellar of a house in Lapine road. No moonshine was seized and no arrests were made but officers stated today that a complaint for illegal possession of a still is to be made by the federal authorities. The still, the police say, was ingeniously concealed under a coal bin and it took considerable effort on the part of the officers to dig it out.

OHIO MAYOR TO CLEAN UP CITY

Newly Elected Head of
Youngstown Has Knotty
Task Confronting Him

Finds it Difficult to Enforce
Promises Made During
Campaign Work

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Dec. 30.—George I. Oles, Youngstown's spectacular mayor-elect, arrived home recently from a vacation in Florida ready he said to "clean up the city" and "fire anyone who doesn't obey orders when he takes office next Sunday."

Oles made political history here by running as an independent candidate, defeating the republican incumbent by over 500 votes and the democratic candidate by over 5000. The city auditor received a request from Oles in Florida asking for a "thorough invoice" of the city "just as if I were going to buy it."

"I want to know how much money the city of Youngstown owes," he wrote, "whom they owe it to and when it is due. I want to know who owes the city of Youngstown. I want to know where the money is coming from to pay the bills. I want to know what stocks we have on hand, such as horse feed and supplies, gasoline in the tanks, stationery and ink and lead pencils, also the amount of coal—and do not forget to state the amount of cash in the bank."

Shortly after the balloting, Mayor Fred J. Warnock, defeated for re-election, issued a 2000-word statement citing court decisions in an effort to show that Oles' promise to give his salary to charity constituted a bribe to the poor, and therefore disqualified him. Petitions to the courts were prepared, but were dropped and no contest now is in sight.

Oles went into the produce business in New Castle, Pa., 20 years ago with a wheelbarrow and a barrel of potatoes as his sole stock in trade. After he had built up a flourishing business there in five years' time he sold it to start a market in Youngstown, to be run on what he called a psychological principle. Oles began presenting eccentric newspaper advertising based, he says, on Billy Sunday's evangelistic tactics, which he had seen in New Castle. Slam-bang statements about women's styles, his competitors, local politics and current topics soon won him a reputation.

During the mayoralty campaign Oles announced in his "ad" one day that he was going to run for mayor. "I just started it for a joke," he said later. "But people took it seriously and pretty soon I took it seriously too."

A Spectacular Campaign.
At length Oles moved into a Youngstown hotel from his country home, to establish a legal residence, and began to give Youngstown its most spectacular political campaign. There was no organization by precincts and wards, but he and his wife held meetings all over the city—meetings for women only at which Mrs. Oles told what a fine husband and father Mr. Oles is, and meetings for men at which Mr. Oles rushed on the platform with arms in air, shouting: "Here I am! Vote for Oles!"

Few persons professed to believe that Oles had a chance until the returns began to come in election night. Next day a check on admissions by various men who had challenged Oles to wagers brought out the fact that by taking all bets he could make enough to pay his campaign expenses and give himself and his family a trip to Florida.

At various times during the campaign Oles announced the following platform planks:

Discontinuance of street car service, and turning over the streets to jitneys.

Firing the whole police force if it didn't clean up the town.

Permitting spooning in parks under police protection.

Jail anyone who paid taxes under a recent revaluation.

Tear up the Erie railroad's tracks if it didn't eliminate down-town grade crossings.

After his election, however, there were indications that Oles was considering reconsidering his policies. Questioned about "firing" various officials whom he had named in his campaign, he said he would have to inquire into the law. Concerning the street car plank, he said that the traffic problem was knotty, and required a great deal of study. Asked as to jailing taxpayers, he said after election that he would jail anyone who broke the law.

ENTERS COLLEGE AFTER LONG WAIT

LIBERTY, Mo., Dec. 30.—Mrs. Mary A. Church, a grandmother, has entered William Jewell College in Liberty after the name of desire for a college education had burned with unflinching determination for more than thirty-five years. Mrs. Church, who has five grown children and five grandchildren, married with her two sons, G. A. Church, 35 years old and James M. Church, 19. A grandchild, George W. Billings, 6, attends school in Nebraska, Wis.

Finishing high school in Detroit, Mich., in 1885, Mrs. Church, then a girl in her teens, longed for further education. Continuous illness in her family made it compulsory for the girl to help support her family following her graduation.

But it was not long before more important responsibilities claimed her time the girl marrying Dr. Frank Church, a young Baptist minister. When the children came the young mother was too busy caring for them to be active in her efforts to obtain the college education.

The mother and her two sons entered college here as freshmen this year.

OPEN SHOP THAT BARS COLLECTIVE BARGAINING IS ANTI-UNION

Various Kinds of Open Shop Described by
Rev. J. A. Ryan of Catholic University
---One Is Openly Anti-Union

By the REV. J. A. RYAN
Professor of Moral Theology and Industrial Relations, Catholic University of America

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—The open shop may be a good thing or a bad thing. All depends upon the kind of open shop one has in mind.

According to the ordinary definition, the open shop is an establishment in which employees may belong to a union or remain outside it without any sort of coercion from either the employer or the union.

Following are two practical definitions of the open shop. The first is this: An open shop is an establishment in which men are not coerced either to enter or to leave the union but in which the employer deals with the union as representing those of his employees who comprise its membership.

In this arrangement, the employer does not put pressure upon his non-union employees to join the organization while the union strives to increase its membership only by methods of persuasion.

This is the kind of an open shop that was sanctioned and enforced by the National War Labor board during the war.

Here is the second practical definition: The open shop is an establishment in which no pressure is put on employees to leave or to enter the union, but in which the employer refuses to deal with the union or its authorized representatives.

Why should men pay dues to the union, attend union meetings, and undergo the other inconveniences involved in union membership if they cannot use the collective power of the union to make bargains with the employer? They might as well belong to a golf club or a society for aesthetic advancement.

In a word, this kind of open shop permits the union to exist, but not to function.

Where It Is Anti-Union

Now this is the kind of open shop which the "open shop movement" of 1920 and 1921 has had in mind, and has endeavored by all sorts of methods, honest and dishonest, to popularize and to put into operation.

The essential dishonesty of that movement lies in the fact that very few of its promoters and advocates ever told the public frankly that their kind of open shop would exclude collective bargaining with the union.

Some of us have recognized this perilous feature of the movement from the beginning.

Everyone who has seen the "open shop" put into operation during the last year, especially in the building industry, has learned the true nature of the "open shop" by actual observation.

Wherever it has been formally adopted, or rather imposed during the last year the "open shop" or the "American plan," means no dealing with the union, and no adequate collective bargaining. Hence it is really anti-union, anti-labor and anti-social.

Augusta, Me., and installed herself in a suite on Commonwealth avenue. She said she did not live with Lawrence, who then was married to another woman and had two children.

With carefully modulated voice the Missouri senator carried his inquiries to the question of dropping the suit, she, as Miss Cole, had instituted to get back the automobile she claimed Lawrence had given her.

After a clear sky Mrs. Lawrence admitted under the suave interrogation of Senator Reed, that she and Lawrence met on the street about three or four weeks after they had quarrelled, and a few days before she dropped the suit.

Love for the man who she thought had jilted her and his love for her, so great that they subsequently married each other, brought them both to want to drop all controversies between them, Mrs. Lawrence said.

Sit in Courtroom

In face of the prosecution's claim that she has given up the suit only after threats to have her indicted as a low woman, Mrs. Lawrence's admissions at this period yesterday brought a decided stir in the courtroom. Senator Reed smiling quizzically now and then, continued his gentle strategy.

Next Mrs. Lawrence flatly contradicted McCallum's earlier testimony that Miss Cole had told him she took off her jewelry and had them put in a safe deposit vault because she was afraid Coakley would make her give them to him.

Another stir in the courtroom, and Senator Reed and District Attorney Pelletier smiled. Further probe into McCallum's testimony followed. McCallum and Garland had told of this listening in on the telephone conversation April 4, when Mr. Pelletier was on the wire, and of the shorthand notating of that conversation. McCallum had denied that he remembered asking Garland to listen in, and Garland denied that he remembered being asked to listen in, or take notes.

Suddenly one of the Pelletier big guns boomed:

"What did you hear Mr. Garland say to Mr. McCallum after that conversation, after Mr. Pelletier was off the wire?" Senator Reed asked.

Against Coakley

"I don't know which one it was," Mrs. Lawrence—Dorothy Cole—replied.

Fire Captains Appointed by Commissioner Salmon

EDWARD P. CUNNINGHAM

HAROLD E. FOSTER

WILLIAM ALCOTT

In addition to the four lieutenants and 13 privates appointed in the fire department yesterday by Commissioner John P. Salmon, three captains were appointed late in the afternoon. They are: William Alcott, Harold Foster and Edward J. Cunningham.

These men have been serving as lieutenants, Mr. Alcott with Hose 8, Merrimack street; Mr. Foster with the truck at Middle street, and Mr. Cunningham with the truck at West Sixth street.

Hungarlow Fire House

The official opening of the new hungarlow fire house on Stevens street took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock, when the members of the municipal council will visit the building and formally inspect the completed work and equipment. The new engine has been installed, and the quota of men assigned by Commissioner Salmon. Commissioners Marchand and Salmon will be the hosts.

Tomorrow afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock the fire house will be open to the public for inspection and all are welcome to visit the building and look things over. Those who accept the invitation will find a fire-house of a type altogether different from anything to be found elsewhere, splendidly equipped with a competent company of firemen and a new triple combination engine of the best type. Additional space has been provided for another engine when the needs of the section require it.

AT LINCOLN SCHOOL

The dressmaking and millinery classes of the Abraham Lincoln school will start the 1922 work on Tuesday evening, Jan. 3. The regular Tuesday-Friday classes meet that night, while the first night for the Monday-Thursday classes will be Thursday, Jan. 5.

Owing to various changes and adjustments, there are vacancies in some of the classes. Any woman who is interested in either branch should be at the school Tuesday evening, Jan. 3, at 7 o'clock and full information regarding classes, dues, etc., will be given. Every possible effort will be made to accommodate new-comers. If sufficient demand is made, new classes, especially in dressmaking, could be formed. Twenty women are enough for a full class, 15 being the minimum to start.

Those interested must bear in mind that it is impossible to join or start a class later than the week beginning Jan. 1. So much work must be done each night, and as late-comers block the rest of the class, they are denied admission once the units are underway.

The classes in elementary subjects and Americanization open again Jan. 3 at 7 p. m. New comers can join these classes at any time and the more the merrier. Young people who left school early should join elementary classes, while the Americanization classes are the proper places for men and women of all ages, who cannot speak, read and write English, or for those who are seeking citizenship papers.

LOWELL TUBERCULOSIS COUNCIL DRIVE

The Lowell tuberculosis council is still driving ahead to reach the $3500 mark of the Christmas seal sale, with which to carry on the work of the organization.

At the start of the drive the $3000 mark was set as a high one to reach, and this, a point over $500 greater than taken in last year, was considered a worthy one to attain.

But with returns coming in with every mail and a few of the regular places to be heard from, the amount is only a fraction of $50 under the $3000 mark.

Mrs. Tyler A. Stevens, who has charge of the drive said this morning that she was hopeful of reaching the $3500 mark. She said, "When we started the drive we set the $2000 mark as the goal to be reached, but it is evident now we have a chance to reach much higher. You see we only realized a little over $2000 last year, and all things considered, we thought if we could go a couple of hundred dollars over the mark this year we would be doing nicely. It is true that we nearly re-doubled our efforts because we realized what we were up against."

But a few days ago the $3000 mark was reached and passed. Naturally the next mark to aim at would be the $3500 point. I don't know whether we will attain this mark or not, but indications point we will be only a little way under it if the amounts continue to come in as they have in the past few days."

Each mail brings a flock of letters.

most of which contain checks or money orders for the fund. There are still quite a number of people to whom letters and seals were sent who have made no reply one way or the other. It is hoped an early reply will be received from all these people as the committee is anxious to check up accounts and make ready an itemized statement for publication.

3500 ROWDIES ARRESTED

Importation of Disorderly Elements Into Calcutta to Enforce the "Hartal"

LONDON, Dec. 30.—It was officially stated yesterday that the importation of disorderly elements into Calcutta Dec. 23, to enforce the "hartal" by terrorizing shopkeepers resulted in 3500 arrests for obstruction and on other charges of disorderly conduct. Arrests in Calcutta for similar reasons during the past six weeks have totaled 3500, according to this statement.

It was also stated that there were no signs of the "hartal" Dec. 23 throughout the greater part of the city, and on subsequent days of the Prince of Wales' visit the crowds were both large and enthusiastic, denoting the absolute failure of the non-cooperationists' efforts to halt all festivities. It was added that as a result of this failure Mahatma Gandhi and his followers have been greatly disconcerted.

FACE COVERED WITH PIMPLES

Hard and Red, Festered and Itched Badly. Cuticura Heals.

"My trouble began with a roughening of the skin and itching scalp. Later hard, red pimples broke out on my face and completely covered it. Some of the pimples festered and itched badly at times. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after a few days my face felt better. I continued using them and in three weeks was completely healed, after using one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment." Governor's Message to Legislature to be Read on Opening Day for First Time Here

(Special to The Sun)

BOSTON, Dec. 30.—For the first time in the history of the commonwealth, a governor's message to the legislature will be read on the opening day of the session next week. Instead of the second day, as has always been the case.

Heretofore the time required for completing the organization of the legislature has made it practically impossible to deliver the address on the opening day, but the 1922 legislature is already organized, as a result of the biennial election system which became operative this year for the first time.

Governor Cox realizes that the pending session is certain to be an extremely busy one, and one which will undoubtedly continue for at least the average length of time. In order that progress may be facilitated as much as possible, he has indicated to the presiding officers of senate and house his desire to address the bodies on Wednesday at 12 o'clock.

Today the governor is putting the final touches on his message, which is expected to be less than the average length, with economy of administration as its keynote.

It is expected that he will lay much stress upon the address touching the recommendations, to be submitted next week, of the special commission which for several months has been studying the administrative departments of the state with a view to reorganizing some of them on a more efficient basis. It is not expected that any extremely radical changes will be recommended, but that minor shake-ups will be made in certain departments is a foregone conclusion.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

That jazz band of Al Moore's which is at the B. F. Keith theatre this week is one of the liveliest, most useful organizations that has stopped on a local stage in many years. Moore certainly has the full dozen of sailor boys trained as few youngsters have ever been trained before, and the result is music, comedy and dancing of a very superior grade. It isn't the whole of the show, but it is a big part of it. Norwood & Hall, in "It Might Have Happened to You," do some exceedingly good work, while Dalton & Clark, in "Aladdin's Lamp," are fascinating. One of the best of wop acts is that of Anthony and Arnold, while Paul and Pauline offer a dainty aerial novelty. Then there are Maxon and Morris and Clifford Jordan, two very good acts.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

"Thunderclap," a William Fox production of the race track, starring Mary Carr, the "mother" in "Over the Hill," and Madge Kennedy in "O, Mary, Be Careful," are the feature attractions at the Merrimack Square theatre today. Don't forget the big midnight performance tomorrow night. A souvenir will be presented every lady standing.

RIALTO THEATRE

Katherine Hodgson Burnett's famous novel, "Little Lord Fauntleroy," is having its sixth day at the Rialto theatre today and has drawn more crowds in front of the silver screen than any other one picture ever shown in that theatre. Everybody admires the wonderful work of Marg Pickford, playing the dual role of mother and son in this picture, and all unite in saying it is her best work. Don't fail to see this picture before Saturday night.

CROWN THEATRE

Dorothy Dalton is back again in the role of a daughter of the great Canadian northwest, a similar character to that in which she made such a success in "The Flame of the Yukon" several years ago. It was in such a role as she has in "The Flame of the Yukon," J. Clarkson Miller's story, which will be seen at the Crown theatre today that Miss Dalton gained her reputation as a genuine star. Miss Dalton plays Colette Brisson, daughter of a French-Canadian miner, who fled to the wilderness to escape arrest for having killed a man. She is left without father and mother in a mining town built up over night and obtains a position in the Aurora Barnum's, a house and dance hall of the town. She soon becomes one of the biggest drawing cards of the saloon.

BAN JOHNSON EXPLAINS LIVELY BALL

CHICAGO, Dec. 30.—Ban Johnson, American league president, today explained the reason for the "lively ball" baseball of the 1921 season, which zipped from the bat with such dizzying speed. The lively ball which was said to be responsible for such sensational batting last summer had been attributed by a few skeptical fans to inside baseball intrigue.

The real cause, said Johnson, was that manufacturers were using better yarn in the baseballs. A cheaper grade had been substituted during the war and was wrapped more tightly. When better yarn was again available, the manufacturers failed at first to go back to the old method of winding.

Another cause, he added, was that the rubber covering of the cork cores was sometimes uneven in thickness so that when the batter connected where there was a good depth of rubber, the ball streaked away with a smart wallop, and travelled high and far.

Billy Evans says

Pitching is the biggest asset a ball club can have.

Some critics argue it is 75 per cent. of a team's strength.

Possibly that is putting it a trifle too strong. It is conservative to say that pitching is 60 per cent. of a team's punch.

In the spring of last year, the St. Louis Cardinals suffered from poor pitching. Manager Hickey only had two men available for duty. For several weeks the team was a tailender.

The hard hitting of the Cardinals availed them nothing, because the opposition was taking greater liberties with the St. Louis pitchers.

Slowly the pitching staff began to round into form. About mid-season the Cardinals began getting consistently good work from the pitching staff. Immediately the club began to win. During the last six weeks it was going stronger than any other team in the National league.

The experience of the St. Louis Cardinals during the 1921 season is proof positive of the value of pitching. A similar lesson might be taken from the record of the Cleveland club. The ability of Bagby and Mads to come through spoiled the big chance of the Indians.

The decision of Judge Landis, which deprives the New York Yankees of two such great hitters as Babe Ruth and Bob Meusel until May 20, was a severe blow to the Yankees. It immediately counted the Yankees out of the running in 1922.

I feel that such a belief is rather premature. The Yankees will miss Ruth and Meusel. The New York owners, however, have taken steps to remedy the loss of the two star outfielders. The addition of Sam Jones and Joe Bush to the pitching staff should more than overcome the loss of Ruth and Meusel.

The former Boston stars should be able to carry the burden until the end of the season. When the Landis suspension is lifted, look out for the Yankees' attack. A team with the hitting and fielding of the Yankees, plus the excellent pitching it should get, certainly looks up as a tough proposition to beat.

Carl Mays heads the list with 27 victories. Sam Jones is next with 23. Hays won 15, Shawkey 13, Bush 12, Harper 4 and Ferguson 3. It will take some tall hitting to hold that bunch in check next year. In addition Huggins has Lefty O'Doul, who was the big noise in the Coast league

WE take this opportunity to most heartily extend the season's greetings and thank our friends for their valued favors and courteous consideration during the past year.

DID YOU VISIT US?

How a Little Joke Led One of Our Callers to Realize the Meaning of Co-operation

"Is it a fair question," asked a Telephone Week visitor, with a twinkle in his eye, "to ask what wrong number 1 should ask for to get the right number 1 want."

"It's a fair question," said the chief operator with a smile, "if you usually get a wrong number when you give the right number. Do you?"

"Well—perhaps not usually, but with annoying frequency."

"And then what happens?"

"Well—I rattle the hook, sputter a little, and perhaps wax sarcastic."

"But you usually stick to it until you get the number you want, don't you? I ask that simply to make clear this point—that it is to the operator's self interest not to make wrong connections purposely or carelessly."

"Yes, I see that it only makes more work for her, but—"

"Let me interrupt to say that I'll laugh at your little joke if you'll laugh at mine," she said, producing a clipping of a newspaper cartoon reproduced on this page.

"Neither is broadly true. As a matter of fact, you probably get better than 98 per cent of your calls completed correctly. If you stop to keep a record of them all. We wish all could be so completed, but it is probably true that lack of care on our part causes some wrong numbers. It is also true that some subscribers show lack of care in making calls, after the manner of this exaggerated cartoon, or in looking up the right numbers, but it would be unfair to make a broad general statement to that effect, because as a rule, calls are completed promptly and correctly."

"Still it would help, you'll admit, if there were fewer exceptions to the rule."

"Indeed it would," said the chief operator heartily.

"But instead of cracking little jokes at each other's expense about wrong numbers and the blame for them, suppose we agree that there are three parties to a telephone call—the person calling, the person called and the operator or operators who connect them. Let's also agree that it is the duty of the person calling to get the right number from the directory, to speak it clearly and distinctly into the transmitter; of the person called to answer promptly; and of the operator or operators who switch the call to do so quickly but carefully and correctly."

"I'll agree," said the caller.

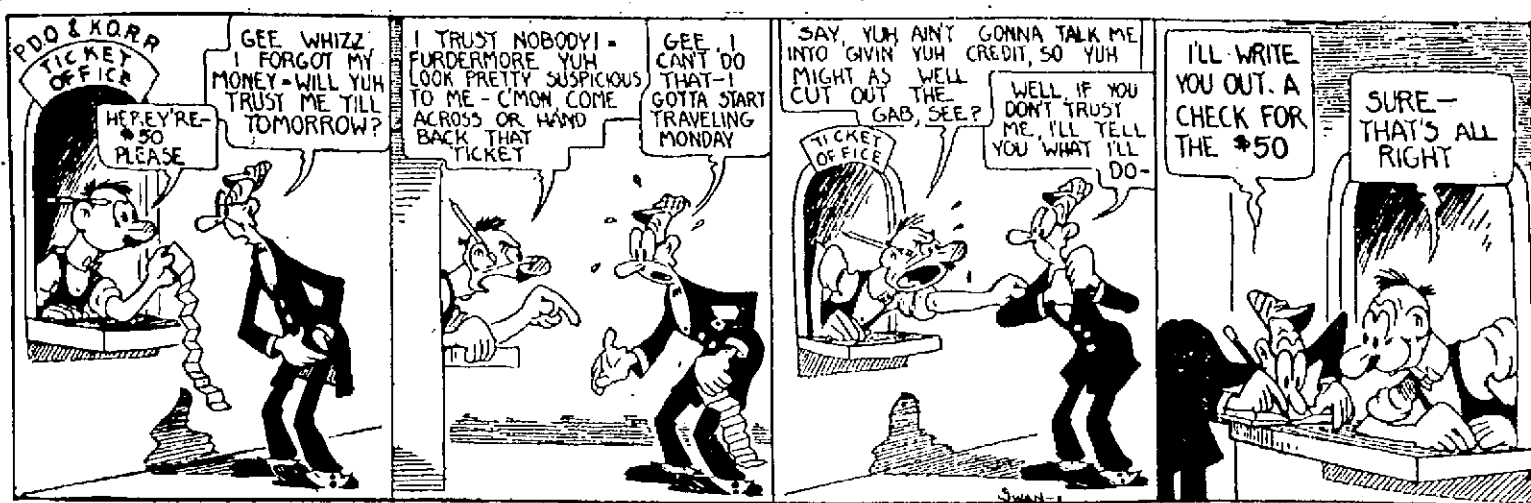

"Good," said the chief operator. "We'll try to do our part 100 per cent correctly. Check up your next hundred calls and see."

We're always glad to have people visit our central office. Let us know a day in advance, if possible, so that someone may be free to receive and escort you.

Hoover's "Best Plan City" National Model for Zoning

THE U. S. DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE HAS DECLARED BERKELEY, CAL., "THE MODEL CITY" IN ZONING AND PLANNING. J. H. KIMBALL, SECRETARY OF THE PLANNING COMMISSION, IS SHOWN EXPLAINING HOW THEY DID IT.

By N.E.A. Service

BERKELEY, Cal., Dec. 30.—With a special committee, selected by Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, on its way from Washington to study the "model city," the eyes of all sections where zoning and city planning are contemplated are centered on the college town.

"The department of commerce has declared Berkeley 'perfectly zoned'."

"If we have been particularly successful, I would say that it is because we have put every step of the project directly up to the people," says Mayor Louis F. Bartlett.

"The plan was worked out piece-meal. We passed an ordinance allowing neighborhoods to form districts, while experts worked out the problem of locating various industrial, home and amusement sections. The forming of districts occupied some little time, and there was considerable trouble with property owners over what type of structure would be allowed on certain properties.

"The best way out, we figured, would be to leave it to popular vote. If the majority willed as we suggested there could be no complaint. And they did. I believe Berkeley is the one city where the voters have directly passed on the question."

Berkeley has been divided into seven districts, respectively allotted to: family dwellings; churches, clubs, hotels and dormitories; to retail businesses; to hospitals, sanatoriums, charitable institutions and some dwellings; semi-public buildings, parks and amusement centers; garaging and supply stations, wholesale businesses; non-obnoxious industries, such as factories and ware houses, and to refineries, tanneries and other industries creating "obnoxious odors."

Here's Proof That

ALLEN'S LUNG HEALER

Prevents Pneumonia

Read Mr. Rhodes' Statement and You Will Realize That Our Claims Are Based on Convincing Proof

H. J. Allen, Dear Sir—I have found Allen's Lung Healer very effective in warding off an attack of pneumonia. I contracted a severe cold, which developed so rapidly that by night my lungs were congested and breathing difficult, with a distressing cough, which racked my whole system. I was convinced from the symptoms that I was in for an attack of pneumonia. Having used Allen's Lung Healer before and having great faith in its effectiveness, I decided to use it over night and call a physician in the morning. I was no better. The improvement was so marked by morning that I decided to continue with the Lung Healer and by night, or within 24 hours after taking the first dose, my lungs were practically clear of congestion and inside of a week the cough was gone. I feel positive that the Lung Healer saved me from pneumonia and I recommend it at every opportunity.

In business, in society and in school is very largely a question of good vision. Poor vision dulls the mind, saps nerve energy, produces numberless physical and mental ills. 70% of us HAVE poor vision—UNKNOWNLY. Fact! KNOW—don't just "think" any longer—KNOW that your vision is 100% efficient. See a competent optical specialist.

EIGHT QUEENS MAY ATTEND MARY'S WEDDING

These eight European queens may attend the $150,000 wedding of Prince Mary of Great Britain and Viscount Lascelles. They are, left to right: above, Helene of Italy, Marie of Rumania, Victoria of Sweden and Elizabeth of Belgium; below, Alexandra of Denmark, Wilhelmina of Holland, Maud of Norway and Victoria of Spain.

BRIEF BUT IMPORTANT WIRE DESPATCHES

PARIS, Dec. 30.—(By the Associated Press).—The meeting of British and French financiers and business men at the French foreign office this afternoon to grapple with the European economic situation is regarded in French circles as one of the most important experiments since the first efforts to bring Europe back to a peace basis.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Federal investigation of retail prices of necessities in all parts of the country is rapidly reaching completion. It was said today at the department of justice.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—The 34 American fertilizer companies, which contracted to take 75 per cent of their potash requirements for this season from the German potash syndicate, have contracted with French mines in Alsace for the remaining 25 per cent. The senate finance committee was told today by Wilbur La Hoo of Washington, counsel for the United States Potash Products association.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—The proposal for continuing conferences as an outgrowth of the armament conference today received the support of the general committee of the limitation of armament, organized under the auspices of the American Federation of Labor.

NORTH SYDNEY, N. S. Dec. 30.—The schooner Defender, from Halifax to Port aux Basques, N. F., with a general cargo, went ashore on Petrie's ledge, late last night, and will be a total loss.

ST. PIERRE MIQUELON, Dec. 30.—The French brigantine Paul E. Simane was ashore on Dog Island today, having grounded during a storm last night. It was feared the ship would be a total loss.

DEBHAM, Dec. 30.—Glad Loring Cunningham, charged with killing John Johnson of Quincy, with a shotgun while the latter was gathering firewood on the Cunningham estate in Milton, last January, pleaded not guilty when arraigned in Norfolk county superior court today. He was remanded to jail to await trial.

BEIRUT, Syria, Dec. 30.—French troops have evacuated Beirut, near the northern Syrian border. It was announced today. Turkish forces entered as the French left.

CAMBRIDGE, Dec. 30.—The body of Rear Admiral Charles H. Davis, U.S.N., retired, was laid to rest with full naval honors in Mount Auburn cemetery today.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—(By the Associated Press).—When the subject of limitation of naval airplane armaments is reached in the conference, probably today or tomorrow, it is stated that the British will propose the application of a definite ratio as in the case of capital ships.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 30.—The wedding of Hugh S. Gibson, American minister to Poland, to Miss. Yves Reynolds, whose engagement was announced from Warsaw yesterday, will take place in this city on February 16, it was announced today.

PORTLAND, Me., Dec. 30.—Congressman John A. Peters of Ellsworth, who next Tuesday will assume his new duties as judge of the United States district court for Maine, forwarded his resignation as representative from the Third Maine district to Gov. Baxter and Frederick H. Gillett, speaker of the national house, today. He is to succeed Judge Clarence Hale, who is to retire from active duty after serving 20 years.

STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—The last full session of the year in the stock market began with little change from recent irregular tendencies. Sears, Roebuck common and preferred were the strongest features at early gains of 2 1/2 and 4 points, respectively, on the strengthening of the company's financial position. Coppers and other metals advanced substantially in connection with reports from Montana indicating resumption early in the coming year of mining operations in that district. Rails, oils, steels and equipments showed no definite trend. There was considerable selling of low priced shares for cash to effect year-end settlements.

Selling for cash became more extensive during the morning but this form of liquidation was without serious effect upon prices. Oils and sugar and motor specialties rose 1 to 3 1/2 points. Sears, Roebuck pfd. increased its gain to five points and Montana Power's two point rise was in response to better copper prospects. International Paper and Woolworth were firmest of the specialties. Improvements among rails and equipments were confined to Delaware, Lackawanna & Western, Atchafalpa and American Locomotive. In the bond market Victory 3 1/2's were the feature at the year's high of 100.10. Call money opened at 5 per cent. Inactive stocks such as Tidewater Oil, South Porto Rico Sugar, North American and the cheaper chain stores were up to almost four points higher at mid-day, when the call money rate rose to 6 per cent. Odd lots of Victory 4 1/2's sold at 100.20. Top prices were made in the active final hour. Leaders of the oil, equipment and mail order groups were most prominent. The closing was strong. Government bonds were irregular. Victory notes, however, showed marked strength.

ONE KILLED, TWO INJURED IN FIRST COASTING ACCIDENT OF SEASON

Driver of Double-Runner Lives Only Two Hours After Crashing Into Automobile at Corner of Shaw and Powell Streets

Henry Simard, 33 years old and married, is dead, and Raymond and Wilfred Vallerand, brothers, aged 8 and 14 years respectively, are suffering from severe injuries as a result of the first serious coasting accident of the season, which took place last night at the corner of Powell and Shaw streets, when a double-runner, steered by Simard and carrying the Vallerand boys, crashed into a Ford runabout driven by Russell A. Williams of Maple street, Chelmsford. Simard lived two hours after being taken to the Lowell Corporation hospital. He had suffered severe internal injuries and nothing could be done to save his life. The two boys were somewhat bruised up, but are not in bad shape, no bones being broken. Their escape from more serious injury or death is considered remarkable. Simard leaves a wife, Maria Charron, and three children living at 23 Barclay street. The Vallerand boys live at 10 Frye street.

PRETTY COLD WEATHER

Local Glasses Registered 5 Below Today—Good Skating and Coasting

Lowell shivered, quivered and shook today under the icy breath from the north when has swept down upon New England since last night. The city is bravely endeavoring to carry on in the grip of the second cold blast to hit this section this winter. Yesterday morning the weather bureau predicted colder weather and forecasted the approach of a storm which would take in the whole New England coast as far north as Eastport, Me. Although the storm has not yet arrived, a steady drop in temperature started shortly after noon yesterday and by 10 o'clock last night the mercury was well on its way towards zero and the bottom of the thermometer. A canvass of the

SAY PLANET VENUS SUPPORTS NO LIFE

SWARTHMORE, Pa., Dec. 30.—Investigations by E. St. John, director of the Wilson Observatory, California, and Seth B. Nichols, his assistant, indicate that the planet Venus supports no life, they asserted in papers read today before the American Astronomical society in annual convention at Swarthmore college.

Both declared that they had discovered no oxygen or water on Venus and therefore the presence of animal life was precluded.

"BREATH INSPECTOR" FOR POLICE FORCE

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, Dec. 30.—Notice of a "breath inspector" to be appointed for the police force, inserted in the police roll call here yesterday as a joke, was hailed as a good idea by Mayor-elect George L. Oles, who said that he would put it into force when he assumes office, Jan. 1.

The notice said that the "breath inspector" would sniff at all policemen every four hours, and that scents of cloves, wintergreen or peppermint would put a black mark on the record of the offending officer.

ROOT CLOSETED WITH HARDING

Member of Arms Delegation and President in Two-Hour Conference

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30. (By the Associated Press).—Ellhu Root of the American armament delegation, was an early visitor at the White House today and was closeted with President Harding for nearly two hours. The regular cabinet meeting was delayed by the extended conference. Mr. Root asserted his talk dealt chiefly with the present situation of "New England railroads."

Two Firemen Overcome—Hot Air Explosion Scatters Burning Embers

QUINCY, Dec. 30.—A three-story wooden business building and several adjacent structures on Hancock street, near Quincy square, were destroyed in a general alarm fire early today. The loss was estimated at $200,000, most of it sustained by the Mutual Furniture Corporation, principal occupants of the business block.

Hot Air Explosion
James Bowles, a volunteer fireman, and Hoseman Thomas Murphy, were overcome by smoke and removed to a hospital. The ladder truck of the central fire station was practically destroyed by fire when a hot air explosion covered it with burning embers. The fire started in a building occupied by "Norman" as a clothing shop.

WEIRD STORY TOLD BY WOMAN IN THE DISTRICT COURT TODAY

Mrs. Carmela Pierro Said She Attacked Angelo Carnevale With Scissors Because His "Spirit" Haunted Her Husband In His Sleep

Because the "spirit" of Angelo today. The case is now set for trial Jan. 5. Fred L. Woodward, of Tilton, N. H., was given a suspended sentence of five months to the house of correction and placed on probation 24 hours, within which the court told him he must go back to his home town or be committed to the Cambridge institution. It was his fifth appearance in court here of late, the police stated. It was also charged that Woodward when arrested had on his person a bottle labeled "Denatured Alcohol, deadly poison," from which the police say he had been drinking some "strong" fluid. The accused, from the case, told the judge what he was drinking from the poisonous bottle was simply "milk." He promised the court he would leave Lowell and return to New Hampshire today.

BIG STILL SEIZED BY LIQUOR SQUAD

The police liquor squad under the direction of Sgt. Michael H. Winn and Federal Enforcement Agent Harry G. Sheldon late last night seized a 100 gallon still in the cellar of a house in Lupine road. No moonshine was seized and no arrests were made but officers stated today that a complaint for illegal possession of a still is to be made by the federal authorities. The still, the police say, was ingeniously concealed under a coal bin and it took considerable effort on the part of the officers to dig it out.

Monoplane, Piloted by Edward Stinson Breaks Continuous Flying Record

Started at 8.58.15 Yesterday Morning and Finished at 11.17.50 Today

MINEOLA, N. Y., Dec. 30.—(By the Associated Press).—The Larsen monoplane, piloted by Edward Stinson, which this morning broke the world's continuous flying record of 24 hours, 19 minutes and 7 seconds, descended shortly after 11.15 a. m., after having been in the air 26 hours, 19 minutes and 35 seconds.

The official times were:

Start: Yesterday morning at 8.58.15.

Finished: This morning at 11.17.50.

Officers of the Aero club of America, who were at the field as official observers were jubilant as they stood watches in hand, marking the passing of the old record and the establishment of the new.

Stinson with Lloyd Bertaud his mechanic, hopped off yesterday morning in the midst of a snow storm. There were no electric suits, depending upon the heat from the exhaust pipes in the pilot's cab to keep them warm.

The machine is equipped with one 155-horse power motor. Every ounce of unnecessary weight was stripped before the flight. About 350 gallons of gasoline and 26 gallons of oil were carried. Although the night was bitterly cold, flying conditions early today were considered good.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Plans Outlined for New Year's Party—Committees Hold Meetings

At a meeting of the Christmas free committee of Lowell council, K. of C., last evening, plans were outlined for a New Year's party on Sunday evening, Jan. 1, at the council's rooms. A supper at midnight, entertainment and favors will feature the program, the entertainment to be held first, followed by the supper and the distribution of the favors. The committee in charge has fixed the price of tickets at $1.00 and are in the hands of the following: John B. Hart, grand knight; Charles J. Landers, district deputy; J. Eugene Smith, John F. Golden, Joseph P. Quincey, Fred E. Wright, John H. Queenan, Henry F. Doran, Patrick J. Ryan, Geo. W. Keefe and the lecturer of the council.

Banquet Committee
The banquet committee of Bishop Delany assembly, fourth degree, K. of C., decided last night that their annual banquet will be held on Feb. 11, the evening before Washington's birthday. A short program of speaking followed by general dancing is planned and the affair will probably be conducted in high school hall. The dancing will be directed by Dr. H. J. Gendreau. Arrangements for the speakers, dinner hall, decorations and music have been placed in the hands of sub-committees. Faithful Navigator William B. Gallagher presided at last night's meeting.

The Stag Party
The committee in charge of the assembly's stag party also met last night and made the primary arrangements for the affair, which will be conducted in the middle of January.

Going to Boston
A large number of members of Lowell council, K. of C., are going to Boston on Sunday, Feb. 26, to take part in an exemplification of the fourth degree. The date for the annual exemplification has been advanced three months in 1922, as it is generally held in May.

WOOD ALCOHOL VICTIMS

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—Police and prohibition officials today redoubled their efforts to locate the source of poisonous bottled liquor which has taken three more lives, bringing up the total for the last six days to nine dead and many others blinded or made seriously ill.

Yesterday's victims included George C. Henry, a middle-aged salesman of Brookline, Mass. Several others who drank wood alcohol when they thought they were drinking gin, are at the point of death at the same institution.

RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT THE M. T. I.
Arthur M. Flaherty, president of the Mathew Temperance Institute for four terms, was re-elected at the semi-annual election held last night in the organization's quarters. As a tribute to Mr. Flaherty's popularity with the members his candidacy was unopposed. A good board of government, composed chiefly of younger members, was elected to assist him for the first six months of 1922.
John J. Conlon was elected vice-president; Walter M. Quinn, financial secretary; James M. McGovern, treasurer.

GETTING READY FOR THE BIG AUTO SHOW

Lowell automobile merchants and salesmen, together with representatives of the affiliated trades, are preparing for the 1922 auto show, which is to be held in the Casino. Members of the Automobile Merchants' association of Lowell and vicinity said today that plans now being made for the annual event, promise to make the 1922 show one of the best ever given in this city or anywhere in the vicinity.

George R. Dana, prominent in the automobile trade in Lowell, is president of the association, which is to hold an important business meeting tonight at the Lowell chamber of commerce to arrange for the big show. A tentative date for the exhibition, Jan. 23 to Jan. 28, was fixed yesterday.

It is said that 35 makes of automobiles will be exhibited at the Casino show. Some of the best lines of automobiles to be shown, also, and supporters are to be shown. The exhibition may it will prove one of the finest things ever arranged for those who own cars or who expect to buy cars in 1922.

The Lowell auto men are assured of splendid support from car manufacturers in their extensive plans to exhibit to the people of Lowell all that is new and up to date in the automotive industry.

MAYOR EXPRESSES

HIS APPRECIATION

In appreciation of the concert given at the Cheimford Street hospital yesterday by Al Moore's Jazz band, Mayor Thompson has sent letters of thanks to Mr. Moore, leader of the band, and Ben Pickett, manager of Keith's theatre, where the band is performing this week, expressing his own personal thanks and those of Mr. and Mrs. Conley as well. The concert was received with extreme enthusiasm by the inmates, and Commissioner Donnelly was also compelled to sing, rendering several of his Harry Lauder imitations and his favorite Irish song, "The Old Field Shawl." The communications follow:

December 30, 1921.
Mr. Al Moore,
Care of B. F. Keith's Theatre,
Lowell, Mass.

My Dear Mr. Moore:
May I express to you and through you to your fellow musicians my sincere appreciation of the concert given at the city hospital yesterday afternoon. Not only was it greatly appreciated by me as the head of this department, but also by Mr. and Mrs. Conley, who are directly in charge.

I trust that at some future time, I may be able to reciprocate in some manner for your kindness.

Very truly yours,
PERRY D. THOMPSON,
Mayor of Lowell.

Dec. 30, 1921.
Benjamin E. Pickett, Manager,
B. F. Keith's Theatre,
Lowell, Mass.

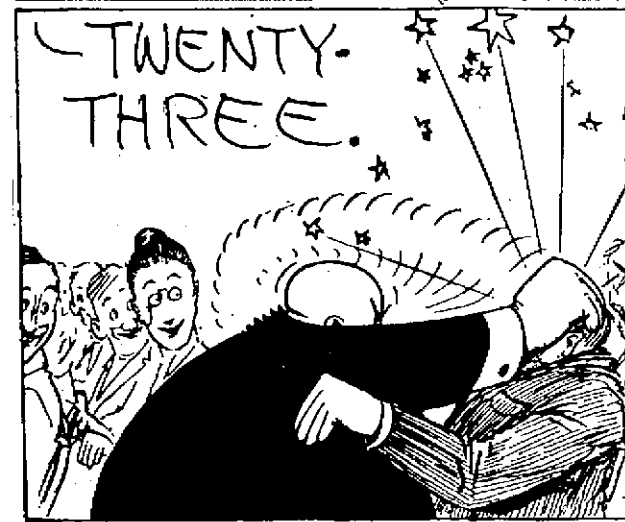

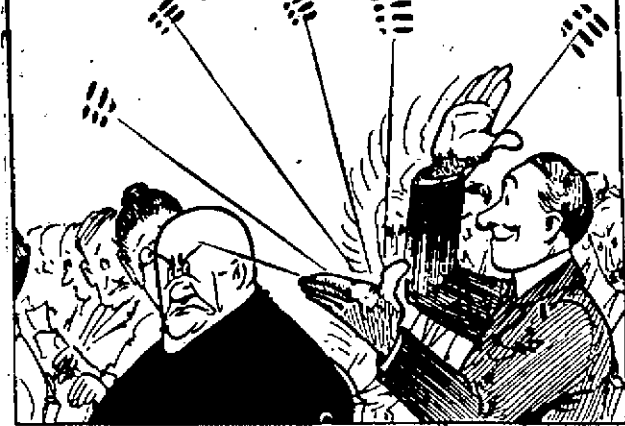

My Dear Mr. Pickett:
Allow me to express my own personal appreciation and that of Mr. and Mrs. Conley, of the most enjoyable concert given at the Cheimford street hospital on Thursday afternoon by the boys of Al Moore's band playing at your theatre this week.

Your assistant manager, Mr. Kelly, accompanied me to the hospital and very kindly looked after all arrangements.

The concert was appreciated very much by the inmates of the hospital, at was your courtesy and willingness to co-operate.

Respectfully yours,
PERRY D. THOMPSON,
Mayor of Lowell.

Ship 403,088 Pounds of Butter to New York

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 30.—Thirteen carloads of butter, totalling 403,088 pounds, started for New York and other eastern points today. It was part of a recent shipment from Australia and New Zealand, under whose impact the local markets still are falling. Seven hundred thousand pounds more of the shipment remain in storage here. Extra choice butter was quoted on the produce exchange here today at 30 cents a pound, 7½ cents less than a week ago.

Sell Pelts Valued at $1,000,000

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Dec. 30.—During the past four years fox pelts valued at over $1,000,000 were sold on the island, the sales being the largest in the history of the fur farming industry.

Italian Bank Granted Moratorium

ROME, Dec. 30.—(By the Associated Press)—The Banca Italiana di Sconto, the doors of which were closed yesterday has been granted a moratorium by court action. It has not been established that the bank actually has failed, and there is a tendency in some quarters to believe that the crisis may be overcome.

22 BRIDGE STREET

1 Killed; 2 Injured
Continued

Near the corner of Powell and Shaw streets, he heard children shouting from the top of the hill, and made an effort to steer his machine to the right side of the street. He was unable to move far enough owing to the crowd of boys on the sidewalk, and brought his machine almost to a stop in front of the oncoming double-runner containing Simard and the 2 boys. The big sled, rushing down the hill at a high rate of speed, crashed headlong into the automobile, smashing the radiator and throwing the riders against the front of the machine. Mr. Simard received the brunt of the smash, and was unconscious when picked up. The boys were thrown out to one side of the automobile and badly shaken up by their toss into the roadway. An ambulance was summoned and Mr. Simard and one of the boys were taken to the hospital, after Dr. Marshall L. Ailing had been summoned to administer first aid. Later, the other boy was also removed to the hospital. The body of Mr. Simard was removed today to the home on Barclay street by Undertaker Joseph Albert. Deceased is survived by his wife, Mrs. Florina (Charroux) Simard; three children, Raymond, Dorothy and Esther; his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Simard; five brothers, Francis, Emory, Azaria and Alfred of this city and Sinalo of Chelmsford; three sisters, Mrs. Frank Deschenes, Mrs. Charles Morin and Mrs. Euclide Vallorand. He was a member of the Sacred Heart league of Notre Dame de Lourdes' church.

Williams Not Held

Mr. Williams this morning appeared at police headquarters and notified the authorities that he was ready to surrender himself should they want to prefer a charge against him. After the matter had been carefully gone over by police officials and Judge Wright it was stated no complaint would be made against him at this time. An inquest into the death of Simard, however, will be held in the near future by one of the judges and should then any evidence be submitted that would tend to prove negligence on Mr. Williams' part a charge of manslaughter will be brought. It was stated.

and by the Star Supply Co., a two-story wooden structure south of the furniture store. It was apparently due to an overheated furnace, although the cause was not definitely determined.

The fire spread rapidly, destroying both buildings and a one-story warehouse to the north. Fanned by a high wind the flames crossed the street, burning a two-family house and two single dwellings.

The roof of the G.A.R. hall, also on Hancock street, was burned and the front of the building was scorched. The Moose Home caught fire, but the blaze there was put out without spread.

Several Thrilling Rescues

Several difficult rescues were made by firemen in the extreme cold.

John Marchetti, his wife and three children were taken down on ladders from their apartment. The artificial stone front of the business block collapsed during the fire, carrying down electric light, telephone and trolley wires, and a larger transformer to the street. The resulting short circuit sent high voltage current into several dwelling houses. A fire was started from this cause in the home of Dr. John Ash, a quarter of a mile away, but it was put out without much damage.

Boston Sends Help

Fire apparatus was sent from Boston and Milton to aid the local firemen. Hundreds of feet of hose was burned out in the hot-air explosion and several lines froze and had to be chopped to allow new connection. The high wind scattered sparks over a large area causing many minor roof fires.

$60,000 LOSS BY FIRE

Five Wooden Buildings in Business Center at Gray, Me., Destroyed Today

GRAY, Me., Dec. 30.—Five small wooden buildings on the West Side of Main street in the square at Gray Corner were burned today with a loss estimated at $60,000.

They contained the hardware store of G. M. Stevens in which it started from an unknown cause, the general store of the Cole-Marsden Co., a hall used by the Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias, the confectionery and periodical store and residence of Andrew Antonio, William H. Dunphy's barber shop and harness shop, and the blacksmith shop of Charles Thayer.

All the buildings except the Cole-Marsden Co. store were owned by Mrs. Luther Hill, whose loss was placed at $13,000. This concern's loss was given as $20,000 on the building which also contained the lodge rooms, and $10,000 on stock. The loss on the stock in the Stevens store, whose owner, one of the oldest merchants, value of Antonio's stock was $5,000. The value of Antonio's stock was $5,000. The loss on lodge property was estimated at $10,000.

During the excitement that prevailed while the fire was in progress, a chimney fire received insufficient attention and later worked into a "blind attic" causing damage of $1000 to the residence of James B. Hall, a quarter of a mile from Gray Corner.

MYSTERIOUS EXPLOSION

Lives of 21 Persons Endangered in Fire Following Explosion in Rochester

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Dec. 30.—Lives of 21 persons were endangered early today in a tenement fire, following a mysterious explosion which partially destroyed a three story frame building in the central section of the city. Police are investigating for a possible blackhand plot.

$40,000 LOSS CAUSED BY FIRE AT BIDDEFORD, ME.

BIDDEFORD, Me., Dec. 30.—The Adams block, a three story structure on Alfred street, was the scene of a fire this morning which caused a loss estimated at from $15,000 to $40,000. The efforts of the firemen to check the blaze, which was discovered shortly after 2 o'clock were hampered by a zero temperature and high wind. The principal loss was due to smoke and water. A drug, shoe and clothing store being wet down, together with a restaurant and bowling alley. The top floor, occupied by a boxing training club, escaped heavy damage. The cause of the blaze is unknown.

FIRE BREAKS OUT IN NEW BRITAIN CHURCH

NEW BRITAIN, Conn., Dec. 30.—As worshippers took their places for early mass today, fire was seen in the rear of the church of St. John the Evangelist (Roman Catholic). Rev. Father Liden directed those present to leave and sent altar boys for fire apparatus. He removed the altar vessels and left. The altar escaped the fire which burned the rear wall and roof of the edifice. The loss is $15,000.

Ex-President Woodrow Wilson at 65

These pictures of Woodrow Wilson were taken upon the sixty-fifth anniversary of his birth, December 28. He posed for them in front of his home, 2340 S street, Washington. This is the first time he has appeared for his photograph, unattended, since he left the White House. He appears in better health than at any time since his breakdown.

ANOTHER HEARING IN THEATRE CASE

The license commission yesterday afternoon held another hearing on the application for a renewal of the license to operate the Merrimack Square theatre. Manager Nelson applied for the permit several weeks ago, but when objections to granting the same were filed with the commission by the management of the New Jewel theatre the board decided to lay the matter on the table and grant public hearings to the objectors. The first hearing was held a week ago this afternoon, both sides being represented by counsel and lively clashes featuring the arguments.

At the regular meeting of the commissioners Tuesday evening the members failed to reach a decision. It being announced that there were still phases of the opposition not clear to them. Hence they decided to call both sides before them for a hearing again, this being done yesterday afternoon. The whole matter was once again gone over and testimony of additional witnesses was heard.

The license of the Merrimack Square theatre expires tomorrow and unless the commission makes known its findings either today or tomorrow this popular amusement house will be obliged to close its doors until the license board decides one way or the other. It was stated at the office of the commission today.

Manager Harpoot of the New Jewel theatre, the complainant in the case, through his attorney, contends that the same persons who are now controlling the Merrimack Square theatre failed to live up to certain contract obligations when, he alleges, they were operating the Jewel theatre some time ago.

BATTERY B LOSES SHOOTING MATCH

Battery B, of this city, in a revolver shooting match at the local armory last night, the bowing team of the local outfit, however, would not be outdone and badly vanquished the rollers from their sister battery. The shooting match was well contested and according to witnesses some excellent scores were turned in. The contests were preceded by a fine supper served in the mess hall during which Lieut. Col. Brown, of Boston, attached to the ordnance department of the army, the guest of the evening, addressed the national guardsmen.

THE OUTLOOK FOR 1922

Retail Trade in Dry Goods

Confident of Better Times
in New England

The prospect in retail trade for 1922, as defined by representative members of the National Retail Dry Goods Association doing business in the larger cities of the United States and in many of the smaller centers, is for a twelve-month somewhat better, on the whole, than 1921. Recovery promises to be gradual with very large sales volume expected from the early fall until the close of the year.

This auspicious outlook is not held, however, throughout the south, where the uncertain future of cotton creates extreme conservatism, while the southwest hopes for a prosperous year only through large crops or higher crop prices.

Practically all agree in anticipating more stable business conditions, with prices little changed. Retail merchants have taken, during 1921, the smallest net profits on which they can do business. Any decline in prices must originate with manufacturers, whose reductions the retailer can pass on to the consumer. The opinion is that the other factor capable of bringing about reduction of commodity prices is lowered freight rates.

Sectional report on business conditions: New England: New England anticipates general improvement as unemployment in local industries decreases. Merchants would welcome lower prices but as a rule are expecting a stiffening of prices with a slight drop in certain lines, with prices maintained on standard, advertised brands of merchandise.

Middle Atlantic States: Retailers generally look forward to a gradual improvement for next year, with a decided turn in business late next summer and very great activity for fall with the end of the retrenchment period. They look for a gradual decline unless the downward trend is checked by the manufacturers.

Southern States: The south is divided as to the retail outlook. Richmond and New Orleans are optimistic, counting on a favorable spring, with larger sales in the fall, as do also Louisville, Atlanta and Birmingham. The south on the whole expects a decline in prices.

Could Not Sleep or Eat For Days

Mrs. Edward Hueston Found That Wincarnis Was the Only Thing That Seemed to Do Her Good

Mrs. Edward Hueston, 5145 N. Cleveland avenue, Philadelphia, tells an interesting story of what Wincarnis did in helping restore her to health.

For a long time Mrs. Hueston had been in poor health, being much run-down and suffering from nervousness. After trying many tonics, without result, she one day, while reading her daily paper, saw one of the advertisements of Wincarnis and decided to try a small bottle.

In Mrs. Hueston's own words, "I took a small bottle and it seemed to do me good, so I bought a large one and within a week I began to feel much better. I started to sleep and eat much better, and my nerves quieted down. After taking three bottles, I felt better than I had for years. Wincarnis is certainly a wonderful tonic."

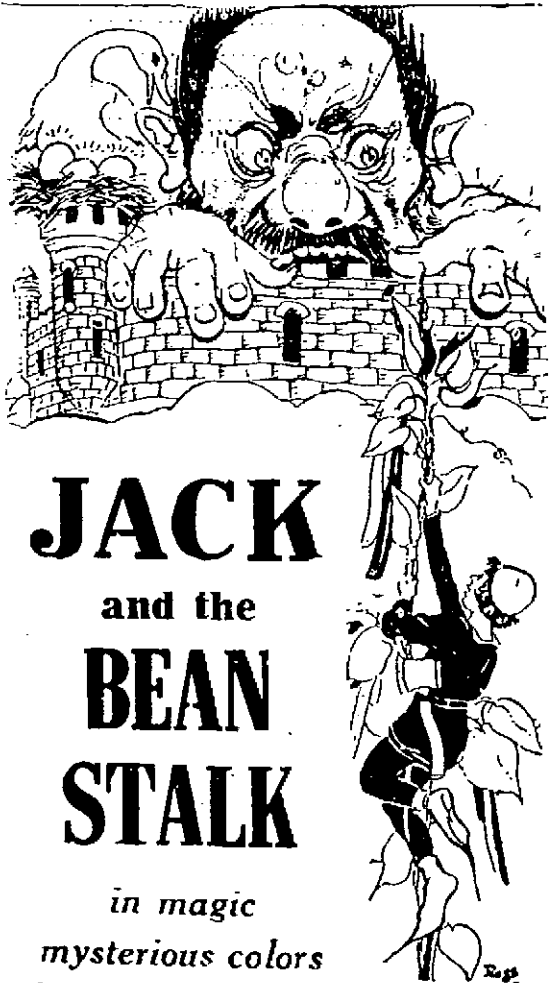

Mrs. Hueston's is only one of many similar cases benefited by the use of Wincarnis. This is proved by the thousands of letters received from persons, grateful for the health and strength Wincarnis gave them when they were weak and worn-out. Who have vouched for its remarkable virtues as a tonic, reconstructive and bloodmaker.

Wincarnis is one of the oldest general tonics in existence, and has been recommended by over 10,000 physicians. All over the world Wincarnis is bringing renewed vigor, vitality, and endurance to weak, anemic, nervous and run-down men and women.

Buy a bottle of Wincarnis today. In two sizes, $1.95 and $1.10 at all first class druggists.

Write today for free instructive booklet, "Hundred per cent. health. How to Obtain It." Edward Lassar, Inc., 404 West 23rd St., New York, U. S. Agents for Wincarnis.—Adv.

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

PLAN RAPID TRANSIT FOR DORCHESTER

BOSTON, Dec. 30.—Plans for a rapid transit system for the Dorchester district are outlined in a report to the legislature filed yesterday by the Public Utilities commission and the Boston Transit commission, acting jointly. These two bodies were directed by the general court to make a study of the subject.

The undertaking would, it is estimated, cost approximately $5,565,000, the greater part of which would have to be provided either by the state, the city of Boston or communities especially benefited.

The plan, in brief, provides for taking over the Shawmut branch of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad running the present Dorchester tunnel trains along the Shawmut branch roadbed to Fields Corner and using high-speed trolleys on the Shawmut branch tracks beyond to Mattapan square. Under this plan passengers would transfer from the tunnel trains to the surface cars at Fields Corner station of the Shawmut branch. The station would be rebuilt and extensively enlarged.

Provision would also be made on the westerly side of the rapid transit tracks between Dorchester avenue and Columbia road for a freight siding to serve the needs of present and future industrial plants.

SIX COASTERS HURT, ONE FATALLY AT HAVERHILL

HAVERHILL, Dec. 30.—Six persons were injured, one of them, a girl, probably fatally, last night when a double-runner, racing at terrific speed down Hill street hill, sideswiped an automobile. The force of the impact hurled some occupants of the sled many feet through the air and others under the automobile. They landed in huddled heaps, cut and bleeding, stunned and with bones fractured.

The most seriously injured is Miss Pauline Larsen, aged 18, of 74 Summer street. She is at the Gen. F. H. Gale hospital with internal injuries. Her recovery is despaired of.

Frank Boyd, 18, of 76 Cape ave., and Angelina Crispi, 16, of 52 Moore street, are at the Hiale hospital. The former is suffering from a severe gash on the forehead and possibly other injuries and the latter from two compound fractures of the left leg, one at the hip and the other at the ankle. The condition of both is serious.

Arthur Sears, 19, of 18 Chestnut street, Valina Downing, 15, of 50 Moore street, and Theresa Crispi, 14, sister of Angelina, were taken to their homes in a taxi after the crash from cuts and bruises.

The collision occurred at about 9 o'clock while hundreds of young folks were coasting, and caused great excitement. The sport was, as a result, abandoned for the night.

COPPER MINES REOPEN ON JANUARY 16

BUTTE, Mont., Dec. 30.—Mines and reduction plants in the Butte, Great Falls and Anaconda districts will resume Jan. 16. It was announced yesterday by all the local mining companies. Starting Jan. 16, a horizontal wage decrease of 50 cents a shift will go into effect.

Companies making the announcement included the Anaconda Copper Mining company, Butte and Superior Mining company, Tuolumne Copper company, Davis-Daly Copper company, North Butte Mining company and others.

It also was stated that the Anaconda company had arranged to buy enough zinc concentrates to produce 6,000,000 or 7,000,000 pounds of zinc a month at its Great Falls plant.

ST. CATHERINE'S DAY POPULAR IN FRANCE

PARIS, Dec. 30.—St. Catherine's day is the day when all young French girls who have attained the age of 25 without finding a husband put on the bonnet of spinsterhood, although this does not necessarily mean that they forthwith abandon all hope of finding a suitable mate.

The girls who work in the Paris dressmaking establishments made high holiday on that day, and those among them who had become "St. Catherine's" wore lace bonnets made by their comrades.

In groups they walked along the boulevards, generally five or six abreast, arms linked, with the bonnet wearers in the front rank and all their escort of friends following. The working girls vied with each other in the fancy costumes they wore.

Wedding groups are popular, with the "bride" beautifully dressed in silks, accompanied by a "bridegroom" in comic costume.

The Three Musketeers, with cloak and sword, slouched hat and white feathers, were to be seen walking proudly along the boulevards followed by their admiring friends, but the Musketeers' voices proclaimed them girls.

PATROLMAN DREWETT IS COMMENDED BY COURT

Patrolman Arthur W. Drewett, on the early night Lakeview avenue beat, was warmly commended by Judge Thomas J. Enright in the juvenile session of the district court today for his work in tracing down and arresting two boys who are believed responsible for a series of thefts of sweaters, neckties and other wearing apparel from the counters of numerous local department stores. The youths, Mitchell Mazur, 14 years old, charged with delinquency, and William Brown, 17 years old, charged with larceny, were arraigned in court today. Mazur was committed to the Lyman school, while the case against Mitchell was continued to next Friday for disposition.

Several weeks before Christmas, reports were made to the police by local store managers that thieves were being committed at counters where boys wearing articles were on display. The patrolmen on various beats were notified and an investigation of the alleged thefts instigated. Patrolman Drewett obtained considerable information regarding the supposed thieves and on his own initiative set out to apprehend the guilty parties. After working on the case night and day for about a week he finally succeeded in locating and arresting the youths. The police say that Mazur and Mitchell are implicated in a number of petty larcenies and are also searching for several other boys whom they suspect of also being shirt-lifters and probable co-workers of the duo.

MATRIMONIAL

A pretty wedding took place yesterday morning at St. Columba's church when Mr. Harold Wilkins and Miss Yvonne Lamarre, two popular young people of this city, were united in the bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed at a nuptial mass celebrated at 8:45 by Rev. Fr. Hogan. The bride was dressed in brown tulle gown with picture hat to match and carried pink tea roses. She was given away by her father, Mr. Emery Lamarre, while the groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Wilkins. At the close of the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served at the home of the bride's parents, 51 Mt. Grove street and later the happy couple, who were the recipients of numerous wedding gifts left on a brief honeymoon trip to Philadelphia and New York. Upon their return they will be tendered a reception at the home of the bride's parents. They will make their home at 3 Dracut street.

Relay—O'Grady

Mr. Patrick O'Grady of Boston and Miss Mary O'Grady of this city were married Wednesday at St. Patrick's church, Nashua, N. H., by Rev. Matthew Creamer, assisted by Rev. John E. Cahalane. Miss Margaret Mitchell of Boston was bridesmaid, while the best man was Mr. Thomas Mason of Nashua. At the close of the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mrs. Oakley Bryan in Midland street, this city.

APPROACH OF ICE HARVESTING SEASON

If the cold weather keeps up it is probable that in the early part of next week the Daniel Gage company will give employment to between 100 and 300 men harvesting ice on the ponds in the neighboring towns. The Gage Co. harvests ice from Forge pond at Forge Village, Spectacle Lake at North Littleton and Baptist pond at South Chelmsford. The ice on these ponds is about 3 inches thick at present and it is believed that three or four more days of good cold weather will bring it to a thickness of about 11 or 12 inches. Miss Gage announced this morning that unless there is a change in the weather, no cutting will be started in the early part of next week. The ice on the Merrimack river is reported as being about three inches thick.

Argument Halts Pelletier Trial

The prosecution had requested permission to take the deposition of Mrs. Agnes J. Ruhl of St. Louis in connection with the allegation that Mr. Pelletier used the district attorney's office to frighten Albert T. Smith in October, 1918 into paying $37,500 all money to Mrs. Ruhl who at that time was his wife. Counsel for Mr. Pelletier took the position that the present proceedings were quasi-criminal and that all witnesses must be brought into court to face the accused.

The attorney general told the court that he was without authority to compel Mrs. Ruhl to come to Boston to testify and that her testimony was essential. The court took the matter under advisement.

Chief Justice Rugg announced that the supreme court docket, originally set for January 9 would be suspended until this trial, which is being held before the full bench, is concluded. He announced also that court would adjourn at 4:30 this afternoon until Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Lawrence Cross-Examined

Mrs. Guy W. Lawrence of Gardiner, Me., who was formerly Miss Dorothy Cote, resumed the stand for cross-examination, when the argument over depositions was ended. Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, counsel for Mr. Pelletier, questioned her again regarding various phases of the case which the attorney general contends, constituted improper use of his office by Mr. Pelletier, and conspiracy with Daniel H. Coakley, an attorney to make her drop a suit against Lawrence to recover an automobile while the couple were at odds with each other in 1916.

Attorneys Kept Couple Apart

The witness said she met Mr. Lawrence some three weeks before she definitely abandoned her suit for possession of the automobile. He told her that he was about broke, she said, and she offered to give him her jewels and to sell the car and give him half of the proceeds to help him out. "Nothing but our attorneys was keeping us apart at that time," she added.

The name of William R. Patten, former attorney general of the state of Maine, was brought into the testimony she expected to give during this trial. Counsel for Mr. Pelletier objected to the question and the court excluded it. Mr. Dodge explained that he desired to show that Mr. Patten, who now represents Mrs. Lawrence, is known to be friendly with Daniel H. Coakley.

At Yesterday's Session
Mrs. Lawrence was the center of all eyes yesterday. She entered the court Continued to Page Eleven coldest points in the city agree on the fact that five below at 8 a. m. today was about the lowest point reached by the mercury.

In Boston it was recorded that the temperature dropped about 35 degrees in 15 hours, and while it did not reach zero, the city felt the icy blast all day. The temperature here must have dropped even more than that because it went below the zero mark.

The Locks & Canals have an automatic thermometer which showed a city is also reported good. (Wherever there is a hill, groups of people, both young and old, may be seen merrily skipping over the hardened crust. The most popular places for coasting seem to be Fort Hill, Oak Street, Porter street, Fairmount to Rogers street and Rogers street. Nearly any section of Centralville is popular with the coasters and reports indicate the "sliding" is excellent in all sections.

The city has not yet designated certain streets of the city that can be used by the coasters. In nearly every city the officials set aside streets upon which coasting may be enjoyed. Last year this was not done because of the fact that there was little real coasting weather. Now that the winter seems to have set in certain streets may be marked off for sliding. The park officials have set aside Fort Hill and have stationed men there as well as at Shedd and Washington parks.

Tobogganing and skiing seem to be more popular this year than in years before, but this may be on account of the excellent conditions for both sports. There is good tobogganing reported at Shedd park, Vesper Country club and Mt. Pleasant Golf club. Skiing is good in about any spot that affords an incline. Fields and country roads are patronized by devotees of skis for the reason the "sticks" are a bit too unmanageable to permit free use in thickly populated places. Once a person gets going on these wooden skates, either a fall or a natural projection is necessary to halt the flight of an amateur.

Supt. Kernan Comments

In commenting on conditions in the city Supt. Kernan said this morning: "The skating, coasting, skiing and tobogganing are fine at Shedd and Washington parks. We will have the South common ready by tomorrow morning and expect the skating to be as good there as it is in the other sections of the city looked after by the park department. We have designated Fort Hill avenue as a place to coast and have assigned men there to prevent the pile-up of the coasters. There are two slides which are being well patronized. If the people will stick to places that are guarded by men there is little danger of accidents."

"The hockey rink at Shedd park is in fine condition. All who wish to play hockey have their chance to perform in this section of the pond. We will allow no hockey playing outside the rink on this surface. We want no repetition of the accident last year when a little boy had his eye injured by a flying puck."

"The skating and tobogganing are all so good at the parks, and there are a great many people taking advantage of the chance for outdoor amusement."

Continued cold weather will keep the various places in good condition and unless there is a storm of some magnitude the sport should be popular for some weeks. A break in the cold weather is not predicted for a few days at least.

Outdoor Sports Popular

With the cold weather, enthusiasts of outdoor winter sports come into their own. The skating, coasting, skiing and tobogganing in various parts of the city are reported as excellent.

The favorite skating places of the city are Shedd park, Washington park and the South common. Supt. of the park department John W. Kernan says the skating at Shedd and Washington parks is fine while the South common has been flooded and will be ready by tomorrow morning. Coasting in different parts of the

"Compound Interest Department" to Attack "Spenders" Inaugurated

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—Men included in the category of "spenders" have been made the special subject of solicitude by the National City bank. This institution has inaugurated an innovation in banking circles in the form of a "compound interest department" where accounts may be opened on deposit of $1 or more, bearing interest at 3 1/2 per cent, compounded semi-annually. Except in name, it is a savings department.

"There are a great many people with incomes ranging from $2000 or $3000 a year upward who never save anything," said an official of the bank. "They are people of medium incomes who have not learned how to be thrifty."

The compound interest department opened three days ago, and 600 accounts already have been opened.

LONDON WRITERS FLAY FRENCH ATTITUDE

LONDON, Dec. 30. (By the Associated Press.)—Efforts at the Washington conference to outlaw the use of the submarine as a weapon and France's claim for a large undersea fleet, continue to be absorbing topics in England. Today's newspapers devote several columns to reports of the conference proceedings and criticisms from the American press and publish lengthy editorials on the developments.

The majority of the editorial writers assail the French attitude.

INDICT WOMEN OWNERS OF MASSAGE PARLORS

CHICAGO, Dec. 30.—Grand jury indictments of three women owners of massage parlors based on evidence of what State's Attorney Robert F. Crowe terms "gross and increasing secret immorality," were announced today as the beginning of a determined campaign to rid Chicago of scores of such establishments.

"There are hundreds of these places in the city," said State's Attorney Crowe, "some of them, of course, are legitimate and respectable, principally those catering exclusively to women. But I can see nothing respectable about a place where girls bathe and massage men."

EUROPEAN STAFF OF U. S. SHIPPING BOARD

LONDON, Dec. 30. (By the Associated Press.)—The European staff of the United States shipping board will be composed almost entirely of Americans at the beginning of the new year, as a result of the Americanization policy inaugurated by Chairman Albert D. Lasker when he took over the direction of the board last June.

The policy of retrenchment, which has been pursued as a companion policy of replacing aliens by Americans, has effected a 70 per cent. reduction in the number of employees in the European field.

Officials expressed satisfaction with contracts which have been established with shipping officials and European governments and with the friendly cooperation accorded by port officials.

Nationalists Leave Cairo for Ceylon

CAIRO, Egypt, Dec. 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—Said Zagloul Pasha, nationalist leader and his five followers who were arrested at Cairo last Friday, sailed from Suez for Ceylon last night.

There has been considerable speculation as to the ultimate destination of Zagloul since receipt of the first despatches telling of his removal to Suez by the British authorities. The six nationalists were ejected from Cairo after refusing to discontinue political activity and their removal was followed by rioting in Cairo and other cities in which a number of lives were lost.

France Regarded With Suspicion

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—Albert Sauraut, head of the French arms conference delegation at the meeting today of the conference naval committee, declared in substance that France was beginning to be regarded with suspicion by the other powers represented in the Washington meeting and that this could not go on.

TO ARREST CREW OF ALCOHOL SCHOONER

BOSTON, Dec. 30.—Federal warrants were issued today for the arrest of the captain and crew of the British schooner Golden West, which was seized in Massachusetts Bay yesterday as a suspected rumrunner by the coast guard cutter Acushnet. The warrants charge the men with "unloading and landing and assisting in unloading and landing from the schooner Golden West in Massachusetts Bay 634 gallons of alcohol from St. Pierre, Martinique."

ARMOUR'S DAUGHTER PRAISES DR. LORENZ

CHICAGO, Dec. 30.—Publication of an article in the Journal of the American Medical Association that the cure of Louisa Armour, daughter of J. Ogden Armour of Chicago by Dr. Adolf Lorenz of Vienna, "was not a cure" today brought a statement from the former Miss Armour, who is now Mrs. John J. Mitchell, Jr. In 1903 and 1904 operations were performed on Mrs. Mitchell by Dr. John Biddon of Chicago and Dr. Lorenz.

"I cannot say that a perfect cure has been effected in either hip, but the hip treated by Dr. Lorenz is far better than the other one, with which he could do little because it had been too badly misshapen," she said. "I myself believe that had it not been for the work done before he was called in my case he could have effected a complete cure."

Chile Breaks Negotiations With Peru

SANTIAGO, Chile, Dec. 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—Chile has broken off negotiations with Peru regarding the dispute over the provinces of Tacna and Arica, declaring that further exchange of views is useless. Big Decrease In Canada's Commerce

OTTAWA, Dec. 30.—Canada's commerce declined heavily in the 12 months ended November, 1921, as shown in a report just issued by the Dominion bureau of statistics. Exports totalled $880,458,548 compared with $1,289,436,450 the previous year, while imports were $826,226,585, against $1,345,592,300 last year. Customs duties fell to $124,181,941, from $207,412,639 in the same period of 1920. Imports from the United States were valued at $579,427,941, and exports $359,016,167.

CITY COUNCIL MEETS AND PAYS MORE BILLS

The municipal council held another of its daily meetings this morning, and was featured principally by the payment of bills for the heating system at the Morey school, amounting to $6450.40, for the new triple combination to be installed at the Stevens street firehouse $10,000, and the appropriation of $2000 to pay for street lighting for the remainder of the current year, including bills unpaid to date.

The meeting was called to order at 11:40 by Mayor Thompson, with all members present, except Commissioner Marchand.

Three requisitions were presented, one for the health yard, one for the Chelmsford street hospital, and a third for outdoor relief. The purchasing agent was ordered to fill the request.

The report of Animal Inspector Dr. Sherman was read and accepted. The doctor stated that an increase in cases of rabies during the coming year is probable. This part of the report was ordered sent to the superintendent of police by the city clerk.

It was voted to instruct the auditor to issue a warrant for the payment of the sum of $10,000 for Commissioner Salmon's new fire engine.

A claim from Annie R. Young for trespasses and damage by the water department was referred to the city solicitor.

An appropriation of $3000 for street lighting, with the emergency order attached, was voted by the council. This will pay for lighting up to January 1.

An award of $70 to Rosa Dowd for damage by the waterworks department by shutting off water without notice—her ceilings, walls and boiler being injured when the water was restored—was voted, and will be paid when Miss Dowd executes a release satisfactory to the city solicitor.

ment by shutting off water without notice—her ceilings, walls and boiler being injured when the water was restored—was voted, and will be paid when Miss Dowd executes a release satisfactory to the city solicitor.

A recess of five minutes was taken at 11:45. Commissioner Marchand entered during the recess.

The meeting reconvened at 11:50, the recess having been extended at the request of Mr. Marchand.

A bill for $3249.51 from the Lowell Gas Light Co. was approved.

Bills for the heating contracts at the Morey school were presented by Commissioner Marchand, amounting to $6,450.40. The items were: Chelmsford Co., plumbers—$3183.50, heating; $64.98, repairs; $2058.40, heating on second contract, connecting addition to new heating system; $125, same; George Huey, drawing of plans and specifications and supervision, $522.28 and $158.91.

The auditor was authorized to issue a warrant for the payment of these bills.

The commissioner was given permission to enter into a contract with Mr. McElholm.

The meeting adjourned at 12:05 until 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

OHIO MAYOR TO CLEAN UP CITY

Newly Elected Head of
Youngstown Has Knotty
Task Confronting Him

Finds it Difficult to Enforce
Promises Made During
Campaign Work

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Dec. 30.—George Y. Oles, Youngstown's spectacular mayor-elect, arrived home recently from a vacation in Florida, ready to say to "clean up the city" and "Fire anyone who doesn't obey orders when he takes office next Sunday."

Oles made political history here by running as an independent candidate, defeating the republican incumbent by over 500 votes and the democratic candidate by over 5000. The city auditor received a request from Oles in Florida asking for a "thorough invoice" of the city "just as if I were going to buy it."

"I want to know how much money the city of Youngstown owes," he wrote, "whom they owe it to and when it is due. I want to know who owes the city of Youngstown. I want to know where the money is coming from to pay the bills. I want to know what stocks we have on hand, such as horse feed and supplies, gasoline in the tanks, stationery and ink and lead pencils, also the amount of coal—and do not forget to state the amount of cash in the bank."

Shortly after the balloting Mayor Fred J. Warnock, defeated for reelection, issued a 2000-word statement citing court decisions in an effort to show that Oles' promise to give his salary to charity constituted a bribe to the poor, and therefore disqualified him. Petitions to the courts were prepared, but were dropped and no contest now is in sight.

Oles went into the produce business in New Castle, Pa., 20 years ago with a wheelbarrow and a barrel of potatoes as his sole stock in trade. After he had built up a flourishing business there in five years' time he sold it to start a market in Youngstown, to be run on what he called a psychological principle. Oles began presenting economic newspaper advertising based, he says, on Billy Sunday's evangelistic tactics, which he had seen in New Castle. Plain-bang statements about women's styles, his competitors, local politics and current topics soon won him a reputation.

During the mayoralty campaign Oles announced in his "ad" one day that he was going to run for mayor. "I just started it for a joke," he said later. "But people took it seriously and pretty soon I took it seriously too."

A Spectacular Campaign
At length Oles moved into a Youngstown hotel from his country home, to establish a legal residence and began to give Youngstown his most spectacular political campaign. There was no organization by precincts and wards, but he and his wife held meetings all over the city—meetings for women only at which Mrs. Oles told what a fine husband and father Mr. Oles is, and meetings for men at which Mr. Oles rushed on the platform with arms in air, shouting: "Here I am! Vote for Oles!"

Few persons professed to believe that Oles had a chance until the returns began to come in election night. Next day a check on admissions by various men who had challenged Oles to wagers brought out the fact that by taking all bets he could make enough to pay his campaign expenses and give himself and his family a trip to Florida.

At various times during the campaign Oles announced the following platform planks:

Discontinuance of street car service, and turning over the streets to jitneys.

Placing the whole police force if it didn't clean up the town.

Permitting smoking in parks under police protection.

Jail anyone who paid taxes under a recent revaluation.

Tear up the Erie railroad's tracks if it didn't eliminate down-town grade crossings.

After his election, however, there were indications that Oles was considering conservative policies. Questioned about "jailing" various officials whom he had named in the campaign, he said he would have to inquire into the law. Concerning the street car plank, he said that the traffic problem was knotty and required a great deal of study. Asked as to jailing taxpayers, he said after election that he would jail anyone who broke the law.

ENTERS COLLEGE AFTER LONG WAIT

LIBERTY, Mo., Dec. 30.—Mrs. Mary A. Church, a grandmother, has entered William Jewell College in Liberty after the lapse of desire for a college education had burned with unfaltering determination for more than thirty-five years. Mrs. Church, who has five grown children and five grandchildren, matriculated with her two sons, G. A. Church, 15 years old, and James M. Church, 13. A grandchild, George W. Billings, 4, attends school in Neosho, Mo.

Finishing high school in Detroit, Mich., in 1885, Mrs. Church, then a girl in her teens, longed for further education. Continuous illness in her family made it compulsory for her to help support her family following her graduation.

But it was not long before more important responsibilities claimed her time the girl marrying Dr. Frank Church, a young Baptist minister. When the children came the young mother was too busy caring for them to be active in her efforts to obtain the college education.

The mother and her two sons entered college here as freshmen this year.

OPEN SHOP THAT BARS COLLECTIVE BARGAINING IS ANTI-UNION

Various Kinds of Open Shop Described by
Rev. J. A. Ryan of Catholic University
---One Is Openly Anti-Union

By the REV. J. A. RYAN
Professor of Moral Theology and Industrial Relations, Catholic University of America

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—The open shop may be a good thing or a bad thing. All depends upon the kind of open shop one has in mind. According to the ordinary definition, the open shop is an establishment in which employees may belong to a union or remain outside it without any sort of coercion from either the employer or the union.

Following are two practical definitions of the open shop. The first is this: An open shop is an establishment in which men are not coerced either to enter or to leave the union but in which the employer deals with the union as representing those of his employees who comprise its membership.

In this arrangement, the employer does not put pressure upon his non-union employees to join the organization while the union strives to increase its membership only by methods of persuasion.

This is the kind of an open shop that was sanctioned and enforced by the National War Labor board during the war.

Less All Gains

Here is the second practical definition: The open shop is an establishment in which no pressure is put on employees to leave or to enter the union, but in which the employer refuses to deal with the union or its authorized representatives.

room flanked by her husband, former Attorney General William R. Pettigill of Maine as her counsel, and a Dr. Spaulding, a personal physician who seated himself at the side of the stand.

Dressed in a simple suit of black, with a dainty white collar open at the throat, a broad but snugly fitting black hat, white gloves and a diamond tiarlet, Mrs. Lawrence presented a decidedly comely appearance. Her black hair was tucked neatly under her hat, and her attitude was graceful as she reclined slightly in her chair.

Schooling Paid by Lawrence

Senator Reed brought out that she had known Lawrence about eight years, that he paid for her schooling in Boston after she came down from

Why should men pay dues to the union, attend union meetings, and undergo the other inconveniences involved in union membership if they cannot use the collective power of the union to make bargains with the employer? They might as well belong to a golf club or a society for aesthetic advancement.

In a word, this kind of open shop permits the union to exist, but not to function.

Where It Is Anti-Union
Now this is the kind of open shop which the "open shop movement" of 1920 and 1921 has had in mind, and has endeavored by all sorts of methods, honest and dishonest, to popularize and to put into operation.

The essential dishonesty of that movement lies in the fact that very few of its promoters and advocates ever told the public frankly that their kind of open shop would exclude collective bargaining with the union.

Some of us have recognized this pernicious feature of the movement from the beginning.

Everyone who has seen the "open shop" put into operation during the last year, especially in the building industry, has learned the true nature of the "open shop" by actual observation.

Wherever it has been formally adopted, or rather imposed during the last year the "open shop," or the "American plan," means no dealing with the union, and no adequate collective bargaining. Hence it is essentially anti-union, anti-labor and anti-social.

Augusta, Me., and installed herself in a suite on Commonwealth avenue. She said she did not live with Lawrence, who then was married to another woman and had two children.

With carefully modulated voice the Missouri senator carried his inquiries to the question of dropping the suit, she, as Miss Cote, had instituted, to get back the automobile she claimed Lawrence had given her.

Out of a clear sky Mrs. Lawrence admitted under the suave interrogation of Senator Reed, that she and Lawrence met on the street about three or four weeks after they had quarrelled, and a few days before she dropped the suit.

Love for the man who she thought had lifted her and his love for her, so great that they subsequently married each other, brought them both to want to drop all controversies between them, Mrs. Lawrence said.

Sit in Courtroom
In face of the prosecution's claim that she has given up the suit only after threats to have her indicted as a Jew woman, Mrs. Lawrence's admissions at this period yesterday brought a decided stir in the courtroom. Senator Reed smiling quizzically now and then, continued his gentle strategy.

Next Mrs. Lawrence flatly contradicted McCallum's earlier testimony that Miss Cote had told him she took off her jewelry and had them put in a safe deposit vault because she was afraid Coakley would make her give them to him.

Another stir in the courtroom, and Senator Reed and District Attorney Pelletier smiled. Further probe into McCallum's testimony followed. McCallum and Garland had told of the listening in on the telephone conversation April 4, when Mr. Pelletier was on the wire, and of the shorthand noting of that conversation. McCallum had denied that he remembered asking Garland to listen in, and Garland denied that he remembered being asked to listen in, or take notes.

Suddenly one of the Pelletier big guns boomed:

"What did you hear Mr. Garland say to Mr. McCallum after that conversation after Mr. Pelletier was off the wire?" Senator Reed asked.

Against Coakley
"I don't know which one it was," Mrs. Lawrence—Dorothy Cote—replied.

Fire Captains Appointed by Commissioner Salmon

EDWARD P. CUNNINGHAM

HAROLD E. FOSTER

GILMAN ALCOTT

In addition to the four lieutenants and 13 privates appointed in the fire department yesterday by Commissioner John F. Salmon, three captains were appointed late in the afternoon. They are Gilman Alcott, Harold Foster and Edward P. Cunningham.

These men have been serving as lieutenants, Mr. Alcott with Hose 3, Merrimack street; Mr. Foster with the truck at Middle street, and Mr. Cunningham with the truck at West Sixth street.

The official opening of the new bungalow fire house on Stevens street took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock, when the members of the municipal council will visit the building and formally inspect the completed work and equipment. The new engine has been installed, and the quota of men assigned by Commissioner Salmon. Commissioners Marchand and Salmon will be the hosts.

Tomorrow afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock the fire house will be open to the public for inspection and all are welcome to visit the building and look things over. Those who accept the invitation will find a fire house of a type altogether different from anything to be found elsewhere.

Equipped with a competent company of firemen and a new triple combination engine of the best type. Additional space has been provided for another engine when the needs of the section require it.

and at home read it and crossed out "many things" she did not think were true. Her husband produced the paper upon Senator Reed's request, and Prosecutor Dodge informed the court that the document had been prepared from the memorandum-McCallum had made of the Dorothy Cote case, and from which McCallum testified Wednesday and for four hours under cross-examination yesterday.

Adjournment came with Senator Reed smiling broadly as he began perusal of the paper.

at the school Tuesday evening, Jan. 3, at 7 o'clock and full information regarding classes, dates, etc., will be given. Every possible effort will be made to accommodate new-comers. If sufficient demand is made, new classes, especially in dressmaking, could be formed. Twenty women are enough for a full class, 15 being the minimum to start.

Those interested must bear in mind that it is impossible to join or start a class later than the week beginning Jan. 1. So much work must be done each night, and as late-comers block the rest of the class, they are denied admission once the units are underway.

The classes in elementary subjects and Americanization open again Jan. 3 at 7 p. m. New comers can join these classes at any time and the more the merrier. Young people who left school early should join elementary classes, while the Americanization classes are the proper places for men and women of all ages, who cannot speak, read and write English, or for those who are seeking citizenship papers.

LOWELL TUBERCULOSIS COUNCIL DRIVE

The Lowell tuberculosis council is still driving ahead to reach the $3500 mark of the Christmas seal sale, with which to carry on the work of the organization.

At the start of the drive the $3000 mark was set as a high one to reach, and this, a point over $500 greater than taken in last year, was considered a worthy one to attain.

But with returns coming in with every mail and a few of the regular places to be heard from, the amount is only a fraction of $20 under the $3200 mark.

Mrs. Tyler A. Stevens, who has charge of the drive said this morning that she was hopeful of reaching the $3500 mark. She said, "When we started the drive we set the $3000 mark as the goal to be reached, but it is evident now we have a chance to go much higher. You see we only realized a little over $2800 last year, and all things considered, we thought if we could go a couple of hundred dollars over the mark this year we would be doing nicely. It is true that we nearly re-doubled our efforts because we realized what we were up against."

"But a few days ago the $3000 mark was reached and passed. Naturally the next mark to aim at would be the $3500 point. I don't know whether we will attain this mark or not, but indications point we will be only a little way under it if the amounts continue to come in as they have in the past few days."

most of which contain checks or money orders for the fund. There are still quite a number of people in whom letters and seals were sent who have made no reply one way or the other. It is hoped an early reply will be received from all these people as the committee is anxious to check up accounts and make ready an itemized statement for publication.

3500 ROWDIES ARRESTED

Importation of Disorderly Elements Into Calcutta to Enforce the "Hartal"

LONDON, Dec. 30.—It was officially stated yesterday that the importation of disorderly elements into Calcutta Dec. 23, to enforce the "hartal" by terrorizing shopkeepers resulted in 650 arrests for obstruction and on other charges of disorderly conduct. Arrests in Calcutta for similar reasons during the past six weeks have totaled 3500, according to the statement.

It was also stated that there were no signs of the "hartal" Dec. 23 throughout the greater part of the city, and on subsequent days of the Prince of Wales' visit the crowds were both large and enthusiastic, denoting the absolute failure of the non-co-operationists' efforts to halt all festivities. It was added that as a result of this failure Mahatma Gandhi and his followers have been greatly discredited.

MRS. CHRISTIAN IS ENTHUSED OVER IT

SAYS IT WOULD BE SIN NOT TO TELL OTHERS HOW
TANLAC RESTORED HER

"I feel that I would be neglecting my duty if I did not tell everybody I can what Tanlac has done for me," said Mrs. A. Christian, 227 North street, Boston.

"About two years ago my stomach became so weak on the slightest thing to eat would make me sick. My appetite all but left me, and even a light meal would cause me to vomit with gas until I could hardly get my breath, and the pains in my stomach were so bad at times I just couldn't help crying. I had bilious attacks that kept me almost past going for days at a time, and I would get so nervous I just trembled all over. Many nights I was so restless and upset I just had to get up out of bed and walk the floor, and mornings I came downstairs feeling as tired as if I had been up all night.

"A friend of mine advised me to try Tanlac, and it certainly was a lucky day for me when I got my first bottle. I've taken four bottles now, and my troubles are all gone and I feel better than ever. I eat just anything I want, even cheese, and nothing hurts me. My nerves are so steady I sleep like a baby, and in the morning I feel just fine. My housework seems more like play now. Tanlac has done so much for me that I just can't find words to fully express my gratitude.

"Tanalac and Tanlac Vegetable Pills have been installed among the most important improvements made. The board of management of the children's home consists of John W. Griffin, president; Edward W. Trull, treasurer; and Ellen O'Leary, matron.

Governor's Message to Legislature to be Read on Opening Day for First Time Here

(Special to The Sun)
BOSTON, Dec. 30.—For the first time in the history of the commonwealth, a governor's message to the legislature will be read on the opening day of the session next week, instead of the second day, as has always been the case.

Heretofore the time required for completing the organization of the legislature has made it practically impossible to deliver the address on the opening day, but the 1922 legislature is already organized, as a result of the biennial election system which became operative this year for the first time.

Governor Cox realizes that the pending session is certain to be an extremely busy one, and one which will undoubtedly continue for at least the average length of time. In order that progress may be facilitated as much as possible, he has indicated to the presiding officers of senate and house his desire to address the bodies on Wednesday at 12 o'clock.

Today the governor is putting the final touches on his message, which is expected to be less than the average length, with economy of administration as its keynote.

It is expected that he will lay much stress upon the need for adopting the recommendations, to be submitted next week, of the special commission which for several months has been studying the administrative departments of the state with a view to reorganizing some of them on a more efficient basis. It is not expected that any extremely radical changes will be recommended, but that minor shake-ups will be made to certain departments is a foregone conclusion.

The Great Race Track Story

Madge Kennedy in

"O, Mary, Be Careful"

SATURDAY NIGHT

Midnight New Year's Eve Performance. A Souvenir to Every Lady Attending.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

By Theatres' Own Press Agents.

H. F. KEITH'S THEATRE:

That jazz band of Al Moore's which is at the B. F. Keith theatre this week is one of the liveliest, most musical organizations that has stepped onto a local stage in many years. Moore certainly has the full dozen of sailor boys trained as few youngsters have ever been trained before, and the result is a very superior grade of dancing of a very superior grade. It has the whole of the week's show, but it is a big part of it. Norwood & Hall, "It Might Have Happened to You," do some exceedingly good work, while Dalton & Craig, in "Madlin's Lamp," are fascinating. One of the best of wop acts is that of Anthony and Arnold, while Paul and Pauline offer a dainty-aerial novelty. Then there is Maxon and Morris and Clifford Jordan, two very good acts.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE:

"Thunderclap," a William Fox production of the race track, starring Mary Carr, the "mother" in "Over the Hill," and Madge Kennedy, in "O, Mary, Be Careful," are the feature attractions at the Merrimack Square theatre today. Don't forget the big midnight performance tomorrow night. A souvenir will be presented every lady standing.

RIALTO THEATRE:

Katherine Hodgson Burnett's famous novel, "Little Lord Fauntleroy," is having its sixth day at the Rialto theatre today and has drawn more crowds in front of the silver screen than any other picture. The picture is shown in that theatre. Everybody admires the wonderful work of Mary Pickford, playing the dual role of mother and son in this picture, and all unite in saying it is her best work. Don't fail to see this picture before Saturday night.

CROWN THEATRE:

Dorothy Dalton is back again in the role of a daughter of the great Canadian northwest, a similar character to that in which she made such a success in "The Flame of the Yukon" several years ago. It was in such a role as she has in "The Idol of the North," J. Clarkston Miller's story, which will be seen at the Crown theatre today that Miss Dalton gained her reputation as a screen star.

Miss Dalton plays Colette Brisson, daughter of a French-Canadian miner, who fled to the wilderness to escape arrest for having killed a man. She is left without father and mother in a mining town built up over night and obtains a position in the Aurora Borealis, a saloon and dance hall of the town. She soon becomes one of the biggest drawing cards of the saloon.

and plays unmercifully with the minor "trimmings" them for all they are worth, but still retaining the most desired of all the girls.

Another success has been scored by Jack Hoxie at his latest Arrow release entitled "Cyclone Bliss." This is the second of the series of Jack Hoxie features that are now being shown at the Crown theatre today. "Cyclone Bliss" is an unusual western feature and affords Jack Hoxie numerous opportunities to display his ability as a horseman and as a fighter.

OPERA HOUSE:

No stock actress has ever received the welcome tendered Miss Marguerite Fields on her return to Lowell during the present week. Together with her own company she is appearing in George Broadhurst's striking dramatic success, "The Storm," a play of genuine merit, both in story and production. Miss Fields reflects her exceptional ability, and assisting her is a company of real artists. Capacity audiences at all performances testify to the enjoyment which the offering is giving.

For next week, beginning with matinee on Monday, the great singing comedienne, "Buddies," will be presented by Miss Fields and a cast that will introduce several new faces. "Buddies" played Broadway for a solid year and Boston for six months. It should score a real triumph here in Lowell. Tickets for the coming week are now selling. Better order them early and avoid possible disappointment. Tel. 261. Why not place your name on the subscription list.

THE STRAND

Lon Chaney, Leatrice Joy and John Bowers are appearing in the new Goldwyn special, "The Ace of Hearts," at The Strand. Then there's the all-star bill in which Chaney, Fairbanks and other stars are shown. The other feature is "Women Who Wait," a story of the fisher-folk of New England, with Marguerite Clayton, Creighton Hale and George MacQuarrie starring. Ralph D. Tompkins, the one-legged dancer is also being featured.

TO AVOID WRECKING OF
ANGLO-IRISH TREATY

DUBLIN, Dec. 30.—(By Associated Press).—Although no compromise between the opponents and advocates of the Anglo-Irish treaty in the Dail Eireann has yet been attained, future plans designed to avoid wrecking the agreement are being considered.

It is generally recognized now that Eamon de Valera was right in stating that the Dail has no power to ratify the treaty. The treaty itself prescribes the mode of ratification to be by the members elected to sit in the house of commons of southern Ireland, which was constituted under the home rule act of 1920, but which actually never met and which, except for the purpose of ratifying the treaty, probably never will meet. Its membership is nearly, but not quite, the same as that of the Dail.

The Dail includes some members from Northern Ireland and excludes four elected to the Southern parliament from Trinity college. The idea is that after the Dail approves of the treaty, which it is expected to do by a comparatively small majority, the ratifying body named in the treaty shall be summoned.

The Dail members who are dissatisfied with the treaty need not attend this gathering. It is pointed out, and thus their colleagues, plus the Trinity members, might ratify the document unanimously. The Dail would still function as Ireland's only recognized elected parliamentary assembly.

Dail Eireann Still to Function

A provisional government would be formed under the treaty, and the Dail Eireann could act as a check on its functions. It will take many months for the new Irish Constitution to be put into working order. In the meantime it is hoped the differences between the Sinn Fein leaders might be settled.

There is, however, a possibility that Mr. De Valera, Austin Stack, Charles Finnegans and Eirish children may, as the Valera has said, regard the new provisional government as an usurpation, and campaign against it.

Some of Mr. De Valera's most influential and valued friends outside the Dail have seen him and urged the desirability of accepting the treaty. They are said to have come away convinced that on the ground of principle he is entirely uncompromising and will fight the matter out, whatever the consequences.

Fastest Quadruped in the World Is Tommy

Yankee Star Not Pleased Over Deal

TOMMY, AND FIGURES SHOWING WHAT HIS SPEED RIVALS CAN DO

By N.E.A. Service
BOSTON, Dec. 30.—Most Gilligan's Tommy, the world's fastest thing on four legs.

Tommy is a whippet—the champion whippet. Undoubtedly he has run 200 yards in less than 10 seconds. But his record is 200 yards in 4.5 seconds, achieved recently at Westbury, 1. 1.

In making his new record, Tommy scurried over the cinder path faster than any other living creature in all the world has ever run.

He ran almost twice as fast as Charlie Paddock, holder of the Tommy's record for the 100-yard dash, could have made the distance.

Even Man o' War, the fastest race horse that ever trod the turf, could not have overtaken Tommy.

Tommy weighs but 11½ pounds. His muscles, however, are long, sleek and hard. In proportion to his weight they are tremendous and hurt his little body through the air like a shot.

Tommy, in common with all whippets, originated from cross between an Italian greyhound and an Irish terrier. From the greyhound, of course, he gets his long legs and his speed.

And from his Irish ancestor he gets his gameness.

Tommy is owned by James Gilligan of Lawrence, who values him at more than $2000. No kennel for Tommy. His abiding place is the parlor with the rest of the family.

Tommy is a vegetarian. During the week before a race, however, Gilligan feeds him just a little meat "to put pep in him."

Tommy has never been permitted to run except when he is racing.

Gilligan has bred whippets for 30 years.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 30—Is Roger Peckinpough pleased at being traded

SPORT à la CARTE

BY ROY GROVE

Joe Ray has been suspended from amateur athletics. Now he can eat.

Nowadays we can't tell whether the football season is coming or going.

He rolled the bones on the Yukon stones.

In rain or shine on the Dixon Blue,
As they in Georgia do.

But he stayed most on the Frisco coast,
The earthquakes rolled out seven.

FORMER BIG LEAGUE STAR LAUDS RECRUITS

CLEVELAND, Dec. 30.—Is Roger Peckinpaugh pleased at being traded by New York to Boston?
Roger Peckinpaugh is not pleased. Why would Roger Peckinpaugh much rather play with New York next season?
Because Roger Peckinpaugh feels that New York will win the American League pennant, which means a cut of at least $4500 in the world series.
Will Roger Peckinpaugh play with the Boston Red Sox next summer?
Roger Peckinpaugh will play with Boston, provided Owner Harry Frazee

What kind of a contract would Roger Peckinpough consider interesting? A contract calling for the same salary he got at New York, plus an amount equal to the loser's share of the 1921 world series.

That in substance is his viewpoint on the trade that takes him away from an almost certain pennant winner to a second division ball club.

Peckinpough has nothing against Boston. In fact, he likes the city and its fans. Filthy lucre is the real issue.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR LARGE CROWD ENJOYS
BOWLING MATCH AMATEUR BOXING ROUTS

Plans have been completed for the bowling match between the teams of the Lawrence Mfg. Co. and Massachusetts Cotton Mills Bowling leagues which will take place next Monday evening at 10 o'clock on Kittredge's alley.

The prizes to be donated to the winners will consist of two silver cups, one donated by Harry Kittredge and the other by Frank Beard; a $5.00 cash prize donated by Margaret McQuade's Apparel store; two golf balls from Huls, the gifts of Dickerman & McQuade and D. S. O'Brien.

Each team of the two leagues will be as follows:

Lawrence Hose Kulte—Capt. Thomanas Seaborn, Fred Swanson, Ed Laird, John Taylor, William Ingle.
Schindler's, Mass. Dress Room—Capt. Schindler, Ernest, Lebonardus, William Laird, Fred Swanson, Joseph Duffy, Henry Bourgeois, William Brooks, Donald Swanson.
Massachusetts Cotton Mills—Capt. captain, Adolph Vezina, Alfred Nault, Louis

Despite the chilly atmosphere, the amateur boys turned out to witness the first round of the tournament sanctioned by the A.A.U. at the Crescent rink last night and all were well rewarded for a splendid program well run off.

Most of the participants were local boys, several of the entrants from out-of-town failing to appear. As a result of the weather conditions, the tournament was productive of a record number of forfeits. In fact, several boys who ought to be presented before the professional ranks. Particularly impressive was the work of a kid, Hendricks, Tommy, son of John Duffey, who was defeated by John Duffey and Young Cavanaugh. In two of the classes there were no winners, and the proper elimination but several fillers. The referee and all were well satisfied with the entertainment and many congratulated the boys who had changed and promoted the bouts. The summer follows:

With the Old Time Diamond Heroes

One of the veterans of the olden days is Paul Hinds. He was in baseball for 25 years. The following article appeared about him 10 years ago:

To Paul Hinds of Washington belongs the palm of longest service in major league baseball. He was in the leading league from 1879 until 1911, 20 years in all, and always near the top as a batsman.

In 1879 he led the National League with a percentage of .547 and took the McKay medal, which, that year, was given to the leading batsman in the leading baseball organization. Paul Hinds' career on the diamond ranks in the same category as that of Joe Stuart, Charley Radbourn, James O'Rourke and Adrian C. Anson with the most credit to Hinds in the point of service.

Hinds started to play ball in Washington in 1879, his first organization being the grade minor club known as the Rose-Jacks, then part of one of the "Hobnob" as South Washington was then called.

His work there was so good that he next joined the Junior Nationals, but very little time. Younger attention was called to his work and he was soon playing on the remnants of Washington. In 1892 and '93 he was a member of the Nationals of Washington, and played on the check, they will enter the game determined to win.

Fans who enjoy the spot rushing feature of the game will see two of the league's leaders at it tonight, Ed. Lusk and Alexander "Jackey" Vance, the latter having held second place among the rushers with 214, with Alexander next with 185. Higgins is the leader with 435.

NEW BEDFORD vs. LOWELL

Today's Sport Angle

Dartmouth has been given a date on the Harvard football schedule for 1922.

That statement doesn't mean very much to the average football enthusiast. However it means much to Dartmouth as a college, and Major Frank Cavanaugh, now football coach at Boston College.

Back in 1911 Dartmouth held Harvard to a 5 to 3 score. It was a terrific game. But Harvard was pressed to the limit to win. The game was a very rough one.

In 1912 Dartmouth had another game with Harvard and had all kinds of trouble whiling 5 to 0, despite the great strength of the Crimson eleven. A drop kick by Charles Buckley was the only goal in the game.

The following year Dartmouth was dropped from the Harvard schedule. One of the reasons given was that the Crimson had only two strong

The dropping of Harvard was also the occasion for a highly unjustified attack on Frank Cavanaugh, head coach of Dartmouth. He is accused of instructing his players to get the Harvard stars. While the game was being played, Cavanaugh suffered one more blow. When Harvard's team scored a touchdown, the crowd roared and the Crimson players were also ill strengthened.

Harvard's return to Dartmouth to play Harvard schedule after a nine-year absence, is pleasing to the alumni of that institution and Major Cavanaugh. The dropping of Harvard by Cavanaugh was a trifle too efficient for a coach of the so-called "big three." His elevens of 1911 and 1912 at Dartmouth were the best ever. Cavanaugh, after leaving Dartmouth, Cavanaugh went to Boston college. In two successive years he beat Yale, which was immediately dropped from college.

SCOTT WOULD PREFER TO STAY WITH RED SOX

BOSTON, Dec. 30.—Everett Scott, the Red Sox shortstop and captain of last year who goes to New York in the trade recently announced, "would rather be back in Boston helping the team than to go on any other vision again, than to play on any other club." he wrote in letters to friends made public today. He is better placed in the Yankees, however he added, than he would be with any other club.

"I'll feel at home," Scott continued, "with the Ruth, Mays, Hoyt, Schang, McNally, Roth, Bush, Harpo and Jones. All ex-Red Sox."

Scott paid Rich testimonial to Peckinbaugh, to come here from New York. "I'll be played at by the Red Sox. I have a team of 30 hitters," he added, but will be very good.

Scott said he had made a strike of oil, was playing on basketball teams and with bowling and hunting, was trying to keep fit during the off season.

Young Mello defeated Kid Darrigan in two rounds.

Final: Young Mello defeated Young Mello in four rounds on points.

As a special number Tommy Fall and Young Corigan appeared in the three day exhibition bout. It was cleverly contested, Fall won.

Another special event brought together Tommy Cronin and Young Walsh in an exhibition match.

Billy Clinton refereed all bouts and his work was highly satisfactory.

Fred Desmond and Frank Day were the judges.

In reply to the challenge of John "Tip" Quinn hurled at Billy Murphy Lynch is the other day, Connolly, who has been looking after Murphy's business, dropped into The Sun and announced that Murphy would like nothing better than a clash with the upstart torchman street boxer. Many reports in circulation are entirely relative to what Quinn did to Murphy in training, some stating that he had it on the Ace boy, and a match between the two was expected to take place. These rumors at rest, says Lynch, the latter feels confident that Murphy can beat Quinn and the sweeter the pal is signed up the better he will like it.

At Diamond, formerly of this city but now boxing in and around New York, says Lynch, "The Sun" states that he is 116 pounds. Diamond says that he soon be ready to tackle all comers and that he has resumed training and will split the beam at 116, but would he like to fight a four rounder? He is particularly anxious to again appear in Lowell and says that his manager had written the local promoter in search of bouts.

BAN JOHNSON EXPLAINS LIVELY BALL

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—Ban Johnson, American league president today explained the reason for the "jack rabbit" baseball of the 1921 season, which zipped from the bat with such dazzling speed. The lively ball which was said to be responsible for such sensational batting last summer had been attributed by a few skeptical fans to inside baseball intrigue.

The real cause, said Johnson, was that manufacturers were using better yarn in the baseballs. A cheaper grade had been substituted during the war and was wrapped more tightly. When better yarn was again available, the manufacturers failed at first to go back to the old method of winding.

Another cause, he added, was that the rubber covering of the cork cores was sometimes uneven in thickness so that when the batter connected where there was a good depth of rubber, the ball cracked away with a snort, whizz, and travelled high and far.

Pitching is the biggest asset a ball club can have.

Some critics argue it is 75 per cent. of a team's strength.

Possibly that is putting it a trifle too strong. It is conservative to say that pitching is 60 per cent. of a team's punch.

In the spring of last year, the St. Louis Cardinals suffered from poor pitching. Manager Rieck only had two men available for duty. For several weeks the team was a tailender.

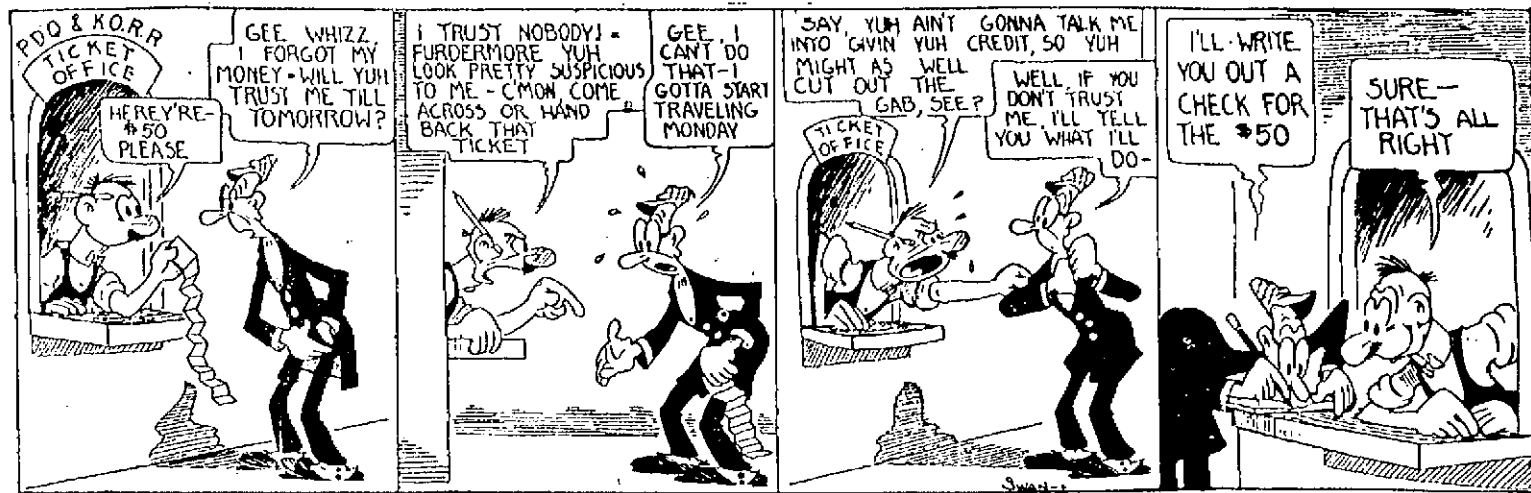

The hard hitting of the Cardinals availed them nothing, because the opposition was taking greater liberties with the St. Louis pitchers.

Slowly the pitching staff began to round into form. About mid-season the Cardinals began getting consistently good work from the pitching staff. Immediately the club began to win. During the last six weeks it was the big noise in the Coast league.

WE take this opportunity to most heartily extend the season's greetings and thank our friends for their valued favors and courteous consideration during the past year.

was going stronger than any other team in the National league.

The experience of the St. Louis Cardinals during the 1921 season is proof positive of the value of pitching. A similar lesson might be taken from the record of the Cleveland club. Inability of Bagby and Mails to come through spoiled the big chance of the Indians.

The decision of Judge Landis, which deprives the New York Yankees of two such great hitters as Ruth and Gehrig until May 20, was a severe blow. A lot of pessimistic critics immediately counted the Yankees out of the running in 1922.

I feel that such a belief is rather premature. The Yankees will miss Ruth and Gehrig, but the New York owners, however, have taken steps to remedy the loss of the two star hitters. The addition of Sam Jones and Joe Bush to the pitching staff should more than overcome the loss of Ruth and Gehrig.

The former Boston stars should be able to carry the burden until the return of Ruth and Gehrig. When the lands suspension is lifted, look out for the Yankees' snuke. A team with the hitting and fielding of the Yankees and the excellent pitching it should certainly looms up as a tough proposition to beat.

Carl Mays heads the list with 23 victories. Sam Jones is next with 21. Hoyt won 19, Shawkey 18, Bush 16, Harper 4 and Ferguson 3. It will take some call hitting to hold that lead in check next year. In addition Higgins has Lefty O'Doul, who plus the excellent pitching it should certainly looms up as a tough proposition to beat.

last season, and Jelly, who starred in the Texas league.

If pitching is strength, keep your eye on the Yankees.

The Yankees pitching staff next year will be made up of Mays, Hoyt, Jones, Bush, Shawkey, Harper, Ferguson, O'Doul and Jelly. The first seven in the list of nine pitchers won club games in the American league last year.

SALLEE RELEASED BY N. Y. GIANTS

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—Harry "Slim" Sallee, veteran left handed pitcher of the New York National league club, has been unconditionally released by the Giants. It was announced late yesterday. Sallee has been in the National league since 1908 and with the exception of Konechny of the Phillies, is the veteran pitcher of the league in point of service.

TOUGH BREAK FOR PLAY- ER AND OWNER

President Lane of the Salt Lake team is one individual who is mighty sorry the coast league helped to promote the winter league.

"The California Winter league kept me from disposing of one of my players to the majors," remarked Mr. Lane at the recent major league meeting in New York.

"One of my players by the name of Siglin, had a mighty big year and looked ripe for a chance in the majors. His uniformly good work throughout the season had attracted the attention of the Scouts and a deal had practically been closed.

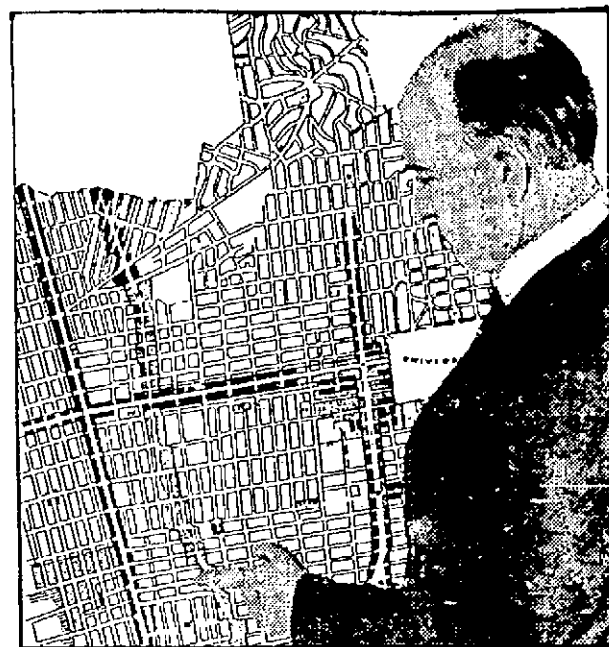

"Unfortunately for Siglin, also myself, he suffered a reversal of form. His work in the winter league in no way compared with his regular season's play. He made anything but an impression on the big league player. The deal which I had all but closed was declared off.

"That left the only kick I have on the winter league staff. I never liked the idea and didn't play any part in the movement. My thought is to give the fans the best brand of ball possible during the season.

"Our aim on the coast should be to make our league a third major league. This can only be done by competition with our major league rather than us.

Hoover's "Best Plan City" National Model for Zoning

THE U. S. DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE HAS DECLARED BERKELEY, CAL., "THE MODEL CITY" IN ZONING AND PLANNING. J. H. KIMBALL, SECRETARY OF THE PLANNING COMMISSION, IS SHOWN EXPLAINING HOW THEY DID IT.

By N.E.A. Service.

BERKELEY, Cal., Dec. 30.—With a special committee, selected by Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, on its way from Washington to study the "model city," the eyes of all sections where zoning and city planning are contemplated are centered on the college town.

"The department of commerce has declared Berkeley 'perfectly zoned'." "If we have been particularly successful, I would say that it is because we have put every step of the project directly up to the people," says Mayor Louis P. Hartlett.

"The plan was worked out piece-meal. We passed an ordinance allocating neighborhoods to form districts, while experts worked out the problem of locating various industrial, home and amusement sections. The formation of districts occupied some little time, and there was considerable trouble with property owners over what type of structure would be allowed on certain properties.

"The best way out, we figured, would be to leave it to popular vote. If the majority wished as we suggested there could be no complaint. And they did. I believe Berkeley is the one city where the voters have directly passed on the question."

Berkeley has been divided into seven districts, respectively allotted to: Family dwellings; churches, flats, hotels and dormitories; to retail businesses; to hospitals, sanitariums, charitable institutions and some dwellings; semi-public buildings, parks and amusement centers; garages, oil supply stations, wholesale businesses; non-obnoxious industries, and amusement sections. The formation of districts occupied some little

ST. ANNE'S CHURCH TEAM WINS

The basketball team of St. Anne's church vanquished the strong opponent of the U.S.S. (Bakota) by the score of 24 to 22 in the St. Anne's gymnasium last night. The game was a fast one and replete with spectacular plays. The result was in doubt until the last two minutes of play when the locals uncoiled a series of excellent passes that resulted in scores and the game, Clarke, of St. Anne's, played well while for the losers further was a star. In between the halves the Highland A.C. a fast aggregation from the F.M.C.A. defeated the St. Anne's second team to the tune of 12 to 10. Brown starred for the victors and Kelley for St. Anne. Following the games dancing was enjoyed.

Here's Proof That

ALLEN'S LUNG HEALER

Prevents Pneumonia

Read Mr. Rhodes' Statement and You Will Realize That Our Claims Are Based on Convincing Proof

H. J. Allen, Dear Sir—I have found Allen's Lung Healer very effective in warding off an attack of pneumonia. I contracted a severe cold, which developed so rapidly that by night my lungs were congested and breathing difficult, with a distressing cough, which racked my whole system. I was convinced from the symptoms that I was in for an attack of pneumonia. Having used Allen's Lung Healer before and having great faith in its effectiveness, I decided to use it over night and call a physician in the morning. I was no better. The improvement was so marked by morning that I decided to continue with the Lung Healer and by night, or within 24 hours after taking the first dose, my lungs were practically clear of congestion and inside of a week the cough was gone. I feel positive that the Lung Healer saved me from pneumonia and I recommend it at every opportunity.

Yours truly,

Plant shipping, as well as on the humanitarian bearing of their use, it was said in official circles here this morning. Regulation of the uses of these craft might, it was added, affect the question of tonnage, but the question of the status must come first.

It was pointed out in these quarters, with reference to the tonnage issue, that France, including her colonies, has a coastline of 15,000 miles to defend, while the United States, including Alaska, has about 11,000 miles.

NEW AND EASY WAY TO TAKE YEAST VITAMINE

Precious Health-Giving Vitamins Now Put up in Tablets

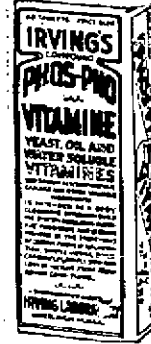

EASY TO TAKE—RESULTS QUICK—ECONOMICAL

Objectionable features, slow results and upset stomachs from eating yeast have caused many to give up the treatment, but now, thanks to modern chemistry, you can buy small, highly concentrated tablets in bottles of 60 at any drug store. Each of these Phospho-Vitamins contains a proper dose of Yeast Vitamine (Water Soluble B) obtained from yeast. These Phospho-Vitamins tablets made expressly for medicinal use also contain the Fat Soluble A Vitamine—a tiny dose of Sodium and Glucosamine, plates, etc., which thus combined do not disturb the stomach as yeast may often do and the tablets of course are much easier to take, results are quick.

Thousands of people with Phospho-Vitamine tablets are gaining new-found health. Being made of finest ingredients by one of America's largest laboratories—druggists, chemists and experts endorse this new and better way to systematically take Vitamins. The name, Irving Laboratories, on bottle and carton is a guarantee of finest quality and purity in medicine. Each bottle of 60 tablets comes packed in orange colored cartons, druggists have Phospho-Vitamine tablets now on hand $1 plus tax for bottle prepaid to Irving Laboratories, Wheeling, W. Va.—Adv.

DID YOU VISIT US?

How a Little Joke Led One of Our Callers to Realize the Meaning of Co-operation

"Is it a fair question," asked a Telephone Week visitor, with a twinkle in his eye, "to ask what wrong number I should ask for to get the right number I want?"

"It's a fair question," said the chief operator with a smile, "if you usually get a wrong number when you give the right number. Do you?"

"Well—perhaps not usually, but with annoying frequency."

"And then what happens?"

"Well—I rattle the hook, sputter a little, and perhaps wax sarcastic."

"But you usually stick to it until you get the number you want, don't you? I ask that simply to make clear this point—that it is to the operator's self interest not to make wrong connections purposely or carelessly."

"Yes, I see that it only makes more work for her, but—"

"Let me interrupt to say that I'll laugh at your little joke if you'll laugh at mine," she said, producing a clipping of a newspaper cartoon reproduced on this page. "Neither is broadly true. As a matter of fact, you probably get better than 98 per cent of your calls completed correctly. If you stop to keep a record of them all. We wish all could be so completed, but it is probably true that lack of care on our part causes some wrong numbers. It is also true that some subscribers show lack of care in making calls, after the manner of this exaggerated cartoon, or in looking up the right numbers, but it would be unfair to make a broad general statement to that effect, because as a rule, calls are completed promptly and correctly."

"Still it would help, you'll admit, if there were fewer exceptions to the rule."

"Indeed it would," said the chief operator heartily.

"But instead of cracking little jokes at each other's expense about wrong numbers and the blame for them, suppose we agree that there are three parties to a telephone call—the person calling, the person called and the operator or operators who connect them. Let's also agree that it is the duty of the person calling to get the right number from the directory, to speak it clearly and distinctly into the transmitter; of the person called to answer promptly; and of the operator or operators who switch the call to do so quickly but carefully and correctly."

"I agree," said the caller.

"Good," said the chief operator. "We'll try to do our part 100 per cent correctly. Check up your next hundred calls and see."

We're always glad to have people visit our central office. Let us know a day in advance, if possible, so that someone may be free to receive and escort you.

TO SIT AT HEARING

Commissioner Nelson Will Hear Evidence in Quincy
House Liquor Raid

BOSTON, Dec. 29.—United States Commissioner William Nelson, who signed the search warrant used by prohibition enforcement officers in making seizure of liquors at the Quincy House while a banquet to Gov. Cox was being held there last week, ruled today that he would sit at the hearing on the two men arrested at that time.

This decision was made after he had listened to long arguments by attorneys for John J. Carthy, proprietor of the hotel and Harold G. Kern, charged with illegally possessing the liquor that was seized. It was argued that the commissioner had no right to sit in judgment on his own acts. The validity of the search warrant used by the enforcement officers and signed by Commissioner Nelson has been questioned. The real question at issue, it was contended, was whether the facts contained in the affidavit of Prohibition Agent W. C. McCraw, accompanying the application for the warrant, were sufficient to show probable cause. If the facts were insufficient the whole complaint should be quashed as in that event the attorneys argued the evidence was obtained illegally. McCraw in his affidavit asserted that he had stood outside the Quincy house, had seen packages being carried in and had heard a humming noise as the bundles passed him.

Following the ruling by Commissioner Nelson the hearing on the cases of McCarthy and Kern was postponed until January 17.

Move Child's Bowels with
"California Fig Syrup"

Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup." If the little tongue is coated, or if your child is listless, cross, feverish, full of cold, or has colic, a teaspoonful will never fail to open the bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works all the constipation, poison, sour bile and waste from the tender, little bowels and gives you a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.—Adv.

35TH BIRTHDAY

Nicholas Giagias Congratulated by Friends

Nicholas Giagias, well known tobacco merchant at 52 Bridge street, is receiving numerous congratulations yesterday, he having reached the age of 35. At his comfortable home, 84 First street, where he has been living for the past six months, there was a formal celebration a few days ago in advance of the birthday festivities. Among the friends who called were numerous Lowell merchants and business men, particularly many of the Greek-speaking races, with whom Giagias is popular.

Today he made a trip through the so-called "coffee house district," and he later told his friends how many cups of genuine black coffee from the Asia Minor shipping centers he drank in order to keep up with those who wanted to toast him in first-rate drinks for tired business men.

In addition to giving away cigars to personal friends today Giagias had time to tell his callers that he has been married just eight years, that his wife is in good health and that they both like Lowell. The tobacco man, who is a regular advertiser in The Sun and who says that he is getting fine results every week from his advertising, was born in Macedonia, but moved to Alexandria, Egypt, when he got older and learned how to travel. He came to Lowell about eight years ago, shortly after his marriage, and for the past 11 months has been in business on Bridge street. He has large salesrooms, excellent room for storing large quantities of tobaccos, etc., and also sells newspapers on the side.

At the concert given at his home the other night, John Crismon played cornet solos, Messrs. Aiken and Bond gave violin and piano selections, and an excellent supper was served to about 100 men and women who called to extend congratulations on the tobacco man's birthday.

SANTA'S THANKS

"NANCY AND NICK, COME HERE!" CALLED THE JOLLY OLD FELLOW

Everything was ready for Christmas news that now had already begun to fall and Santa himself was buttoning up his great coat, preparing for his long, cold ride.

"Nancy and Nick, come here!" called the jolly old fellow. "Oh, there you are! Nancy, did you get all the holes darned?"

"Yes, Mr. Santa," answered the little girl, "and here is your magic needle. I found over and over so many stockings that needed darning."

"Thank you, my dear," said Santa Claus. "Now, Nickie, did you find any more notes in the chimney?"

Nick had, as we know, and handed them over to Santa Claus who stuffed them into his pocket.

"And now, Nickie," nodded the kindly old saint, "I want to thank you and to tell you what a help you have been. Christmas is, of course, more or less magic, but greater than all its mystery is its wonderful spirit of unselfishness and that is what you Twins have been, the real spirit of Christmas, for you have never once thought of yourselves."

"Goodbye, now. Wish yourselves home and may you have happy holidays. I won't see you again, for when I come down your chimney, you will be asleep. Fairly-time and earth-time being in no way alike, no doubt you have never been missed."

With that he kissed them and was gone.

BILLERICA CAR SERVICE MORE NEW U. S. CITIZENS

Street Railway Promises Additional Car Service for its Billerica Patrons

Additional electric car service is promised Billerica patrons of the street railway, as a result of a petition sent to the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway lines by Chairman Thomas F. Sheridan of the Billerica board of selectmen. For some time attempts have been made to improve the car service running to Billerica, but without success. Now the town fathers appear to have won their case for State Trustee Fred J. Crowley has just sent the following letter to the Billerica man announcing important changes that will give the townpeople out that way much better service:

"Dear Sir:—
"The company is willing to put on trial the following schedule between Merrimack square, Lowell, and Billerica Centre:
"Week days, half-hourly time, beginning at 6:30 a. m., and continuing to 9:30 a. m., then hourly to 12:07 p. m., half-hourly to 1:52, then hourly to 11:07 p. m. Last car leaving at 11:07 (theatre car) will run double-header.
"Saturdays, same as week days until 11:07 a. m., then half-hourly through afternoon and evening, with any additional service to North Billerica that the riding will warrant. Will double-head the last car, 11:07 p. m. (theatre car).
"This schedule will be put into effect just as soon as schedules can be prepared and the runs picked by the men, which should be about the middle of next week. In the meantime, the present holiday schedule will be maintained on this line."

MUNICIPAL CHRISTMAS TREE EXERCISES

The New Year's eve observance at the municipal Christmas tree tomorrow evening is to be about the same as on Christmas eve, according to Sup't. E. J. Kelly. The program will be an exception, Mayor-elect Brown will address the gathering during the exercises, extending his greeting to the citizens in an unofficial capacity. Mayor Thompson will express the city's greetings by request, and the city's program of carol singing will be repeated, with Albert Edmund Brown as leader. The Lowell Military band will furnish music. A number of those who wished to attend last week were prevented from doing so by the storm, and Sup't. Kelly has been continually urged to repeat the program exactly as at first given.

AUCTION OF THE LAND AND BUILDINGS THEREON KNOWN AS THE LIGHTING STATION WITH FRONTAGE ON FLETCHER, CROSS AND WILLIE STREETS, ON

Next Saturday, December 31, at 3 O'Clock

By vote of the Municipal Council I have instructed the Auctioneer to sell, to whomsoever will bid the most, that tract of land with the buildings thereon, containing five thousand three hundred and sixty-two square feet (5362) and bounded by Fletcher, Cross and Willie Streets, having a frontage of 133 feet on Fletcher Street, directly opposite the North Common, and 85 feet on Willie Street and one hundred and thirty feet (130) on Cross Street, being a triangular tract of land. There is one large building, two stories and one half, with large hall on the first floor and three rooms on the second, which has for a long period of years been occupied as headquarters of the Gen. Butler Veteran Firemen's Club. There is another building which has been utilized by the City of Lowell as one of its polling booths.

The purchaser must deposit with or satisfactorily secure to the Auctioneer the sum of $300.00 just as soon as the property is struck off. Other terms made known at time and place of sale.

Per order, GEORGE E. MARCHAND,
Commissioner of Public Property and Licenses.

Naturalization Session in Superior Court—200 New Citizens Admitted

Nearly 200 new citizens were admitted to the United States today as the result of the naturalization session held by superior court. Although there were 210 men on the list, some of them were not admitted, but the court suggested that they continue their studies.

The court house was pretty well crowded during most of the session as the many witnesses, together with the 210 aspirants formed quite a crowd. Court Officer Styles and Deputy Sheriff Stevens were the only two officials on duty, and as both were occupied in lining up the applicants and their witnesses, they could devote but little time to the handling of the court. It was almost impossible to get near the entrance of the court room, the crowd was so thick, while the people inside had to be pushed and jostled from the room on their way out.

The oath as administered by Clerk Smith is as follows: "You hereby declare on oath, that you absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty, and particularly to (here the name of the applicant's ruler is inserted) of whom you have heretofore been a subject; that you will support and defend the constitution and laws of the United States of America against all enemies, foreign and domestic; and that you will bear true faith and allegiance to the same."

DEATHS

GILLON—Mrs. M. Josephine Gillon, widow of Hugh F. Gillon, and daughter of Francis Joseph and Mary Drach, died last evening at her home, 25 Hanks street. She was born in Lowell, April 16, 1857, and was educated in the public schools, graduating from the high school in the class of 1875. A. C. Carney medal recipient. In 1891 she secured the employ of the Daily Courier as a typesetter and after seven years became proofreader, continuing in that position for several years. She was a real service in all. She is survived by two sisters, Miss Louise Drach of this city and Mrs. T. A. Vautrinot of East Andover, a daughter, Mrs. M. J. Gillon, and several nieces and nephews all of town. Deceased was a devout member of the Immaculate Conception parish, an active worker in its charitable organizations.

ARMSTRONG—Albert J. Armstrong, died suddenly last evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lewis H. Robey, 340 Cabot street, aged 72 years and 9 months. He was a retired farmer and came to Lowell a few years ago from New Brunswick. He leaves his wife, Emma G. Armstrong, four children, Marshall, Joseph, Albert and Arthur, and Mrs. Frank A. Taylor and Mrs. Lewis H. Robey, both of Lowell, and one brother and five sisters.

MCDOWELL—Theresa McDowell, infant daughter of Daniel and Anna (Pollard) McDowell, died yesterday at the home of her parents, 120 Howard street, aged 10 months.

RILEY—Martin H. Riley, a well known resident of this city, and an attendant of the Immaculate Conception church, died yesterday at his home, 176 Fayette street, after a brief illness, aged 70 years. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Mary Riley, and a son, Martin H. Riley, Jr. Mr. Riley was a member of the Holy Name society of the Immaculate Conception church.

FARNHAM—George W. Farnham, a well known member of the city, who had resided for the past 50 years at his late home at the Lowell General hospital at the age of 71 years. Mr. Farnham was formerly employed by the Lowell Machine Shop for 35 years. He is survived by his wife, Lois M. Farnham of this city; one daughter, Mrs. William B. Boring of Worcester, son, Eric F. Farnham of Lowell, and a grandson, George C. Cashin of Worcester. Mr. Farnham was a member of Lowell Lodge, Royal Arcanum. His body will be removed to his home, 23 Rolle street, by Undertaker William H. Saunders.

DUNLAVEY—Mrs. Ella McCabe Dunlavy died Thursday night at the Lowell General hospital, aged 23 years. She was survived by her husband, John, her mother, Mrs. Anna McCabe; one sister, Miss Agnes McCabe; and a very young nephew, John, who was a very popular young lady of St. Patrick's parish and was a well known member of the Holy Family society. Her body was taken to her home, 123 Adams street, by Undertakers Charles H. Molloy's Sons.

FUNERALS

ADRIEN—The funeral services of Mrs. Pamela A. Adrien was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. N. Brisset, 5 Crescent street, yesterday afternoon. Rev. Dr. J. J. Connelley, D.D., pastor of the Elliot Congregational church, officiated. Mrs. P. L. Roberts sang appropriate selections. The flowers were numerous. The bearers were Edwin Manning, Alden Matthews, Newell P. Putnam and Eugene J. Stoughton. Putnam was in the family lot in West Lynn. The burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery where Rev. Dr. Tutill read the burial prayers. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker William A. Mack.

SMITH—The funeral of the late Mrs. Ellen (Riley) Smith took place this morning at 8:30 o'clock from her home, 30 Marion street, and was largely attended by sorrowing relatives and friends. The cortege proceeded to St. Patrick's church where at

HARDING SEES BUSINESS EARL OF ATHLONE MAY BE IMPROVEMENT IN 1922 GOVERNOR OF IRELAND

OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 30.—Belief that the national business situation is going to improve in 1922, was expressed by President Harding in a message made public today by the Omaha chamber of commerce in connection with an entertainment in honor of traveling salesmen who were out of Omaha.

President Harding said it was his hope that traveling men "will continue in the coming year the splendid work for American business and national confidence which they have always conducted in the past."

It has long been a conviction with me that no group of men do more to spread the spirit and sentiment of optimism than do these ambassadors of business, as I like to call them.

"I hope and firmly believe that the efforts which they and many others are putting forward, are going to bring about a vast improvement in the national business situation in the coming year."

CANDIDATE FOR PRINCIPAL ASSESSOR

Thomas F. Garvey, the well known cigar maker and president of the Cigar Makers' union, announces his candidacy for the position of principal assessor. Mr. Garvey said he determined to go into the fight after a delegation from the Cigar Makers' union had called on him at his home.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS

The annual republican caucus in Dracut for the nomination of candidates for the annual election, will be held Jan. 21 and the selection will be made under the new system, that of precinct voting, which will go into effect in the town next month. There will be four precincts one at Collinsville, one at Navy Yard, one at Dracut Centre, and the other at Kenwood. The annual election will be held on the second Monday in February. The date for the democratic caucus has not as yet been set, but it is believed it will be Jan. 23.

MADE "BIG" DISCOVERY PUTNAM BILL HEARING

Workmen Tearing Down Old Garage Unearthed Box of Auto Plates

Workmen tearing down the old garage in front of the new Memorial auditorium this week, made a discovery that surprised them. It was an old box filled with heavy metal material that appeared to be worth opening. When the workmen uncovered the box, they discovered that the metal was none other than a quantity of Lowell Auto League plates, about 50 in all, which were bought some time ago to advertise Lowell and local merchants.

The plates were taken today to the rooms of the Lowell Chamber of Commerce, where they can be obtained by anyone willing to post them on roadways to help along the advertising campaign. The plates were left in the garage by someone who had been disposing of them about the countryside in the Chamber of Commerce campaign. They had long been missed, having been mislaid and covered up by mistake. The chamber officials are glad to get them back again, and as they are well made plates with large, white letters on a handsome background, a little larger if anything than the regulation auto number plates, anyone desiring to post some of the advertising signs can have them free of charge by calling at the chamber headquarters.

ACCIDENT BOARD HEARING

A hearing was conducted before the industrial accident board in the Aldermanic chamber at city hall this morning in the case of Terence Owens vs. the Appleton Mfg. Co. The man had the tips of two fingers injured in a machine some time ago. The question lay on specific compensation. The board's representative John Gosselin, who conducted the hearing took the case under advisement. Owens was represented by Patrick J. Reynolds, Esq., and the American Mutual Insurance Co., who carried the insurance, was represented by Gay Gleason, Esq.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE

Another candidate who has entered the field is Frank Merritt, an electrician, who announced his candidacy for the position of inspector of wires today. Mr. Merritt is the son of William Merritt, a well known bell player some time with old Company M of the Ninth regiment, and during his service in France in the late war was wounded twice. He has been in the electrical business for 10 years.
